Greetings,

Hi, been long time no see. Mary, as for contacting Mr. Drobile, don't think so. He is listing all OUR information on the various web sites, without getting/having permission to do so. There's really no need to get a password from him for viewing our information, as it can be freely accessed from several different sites. Not that it makes any difference, but it's a good way of having erronous information published on the web I think. Yes, I have had his email addy, have had it for several years, but thanks for giving it again. Sorry about Mr. Drobile. Must go for now, as ever,
LDS......

Hi -
Just finished looking at the Metzinger site at myfamily.com. Looked at the address book and saw no Slusser name........think you should be there. It does have some things of interest, but needs more. I like it, but get tired of receiving notifications of birthdays, etc., on my E-Mail. I just delete them, because I am not really interested in sending birthday cards to distant cousins.

Think you should contact Bob Droble, site administrator, and get a password from him so that you can see what is on the site or add to if interested. Think you have his E-Mail, if not:

RDrobile@aol.com

He will send you a password so that you can access the site. Bob and Deloris will be gone until Feb. 8 (per a message on myfamily.com), so he will not answer until after that date.
Talk later,
Mary Ruth

Mary,

I supposed we were talking about Mr. Drobile, not Metzinger. Why are you putting the Metzinger info in here? I am aware also, that the Metzinger name was your father's family line, as well as your's, and of my wife's also. And, who really gives a big hoot, whether or not Mr. Drobile, posts any Slusser information at all......I sure as $%&)@ don't care. I have my Slusser information and that's all that matters. Why Mary Ruth, why are you being caustic and trying start more ill feelings?

As for the Metzinger information that Bob Dribile sent to you, you forwarded it down this way, remember, asking for me to be of assistance to you. What....are you PO cause I seen it, sounds like it to me. Oh well, it's your problem, you got to live with it, not me, thank goodness.

Am truely sorry that I bothered being polite by answering your letter. May you have a good.

Dear Sis,
Talked to Helen today and she said that Larrie had surgery, but was doing pretty good. Happy to hear that. It sounded like the surgery was on the area of the neck that you had mentioned a long time ago. The "thing" they found when he was in the hospital, but would not do surgery because of his heart.
Are you ready for Christmas?? I got my boxes in the mail quite early this year and missed the lines at the postoffice. Glad of that.
The weather here is very cold. It was 7 degrees this morning and is only 14 now at 2:30 PM.........much snow is on the way. Not ready for that.
Talk later,
Mary R.

Mary, I'm not one trying to tell you anything but offering a little advice only. Please give Jack Niell a shout on how to download pic's from the AOL. system. He just quit AOL yesterday and he does know how to do it. He's been selling on ebay auction for over a year now, and has been including digital pictures of what he's selling. Your picture IS there, you just have to know how to get to it is all. Sorry about that. Please work it out with Jack, OK.

Subject: Re: More Strong info

Hi Anne,
Found a bit more on the Strong family, as follows:

1850 census / Randolph Co. Alabama
Samuel Strong / 37 / born TN
Rebecca Strong / 37 / born TN
with children, including
JOHN STRONG / 12 / BORN ALABAMA

1860 census / Tallapoosa Co. Alabama
John A. Strong / 22 / BORN ALABAMA
Louisa Strong / 27 . born Georgia
GEORGE STRONG / 2 / born ALABAMA
William Strong / 1 / born Alabama

1870 census / Tallapoosa Co. Alabama
John Strong / 32 / born Alabama
Louiza Strong / 35 / born Georgia
GEORGE STRONG / 12 / born Alabama
William Strong / 10 / born Alabama
Oma Strong / 8 / born Alabama
Mary Strong / 7 / born Alabama
Francis Strong / 5 / born Alabama
Lucy Strong / 3 / born Alabama
John Strong / 7 months / born Alabama

NOTE; John A. Strong married Louisa Smith on 25 Sep 1856 in Tallapoosa Co. Alabama.

It appears possible that the Samuel Strong of the 1850 census is a son of Mastin Strong who was born in Virginia. Mastin is living in Randolph Co. in 1850 and is age 84 with a wife Rebecca, age 74.

As far as a budget for this research.......no charge for this fun research. I love history and so enjoy doing research. Many years ago, I did charge for genealogy research and after doing a great deal of genealogy work for a lady from Michigan, sent her my findings, pictures, etc. Told her the cost was $80 for eight hours of research. I never heard from her....not even a "thank you". It did upset me that she did not acknowledge my work....then decided maybe something had happened to her and her family did not feel it necessary to send a thanks. Right then, I decided that if I loved research why not do it for free and choose the research I wanted to perform.........so when Cynthia called to see if I would help you....jumped on the wagon and was ready to go.
I am only sending you brief info and when I finish the looking, will mail the findings to you.

Feel better each day............

Dear Mary,
Yes, a good trip home and promptly fell asleep. We start my 3d infusion cycle at 9am today. I will have my laptop and checkin with you during the day.
This is all very exciting. I wish I were sitting next to you in Bartlesville so I could learn how you are doing this. That is one of your questions: I do believe I will not return prior to November.
Mary, please let me know "the budget"and how much I owe for your time and expenses. This is priceless to me as I loved this little lady very much!
I will be in touch later today.

George W. Strong married Julia I. Winslett on 4 Oct 1877 in Tallapoosa Co. Alabama. In 1880 George, Julia and their first child, James were living in Hackneyville, Tallapoosa Co. Alabama

I have copied census records, marriage records and several other records and if you will send me your mailing address, would be happy to send those items to you.
Do you know when you will come back to Bartlesville ? If it is soon, I could meet with you and give these items to you at that time. Just let me know.
Might mention that I believe your Georgie Bell Strong Riley is really "GEORGIA ISABELLA STRONG RILEY" Her mother was Julia Isabella, so probably named after her mother.
Have lots more, but will save it until I hear from you.

St. Nicholas' Church, Dacada, Wis.

(I'm including this church, although the church building is located in Sheboygan County, the church's cemetery is in Ozaukee County)

St. Nicholas' Church
Dacada, Wis.

The parish of St. Nicholas at Dacada, Sheboygan County, was first established November 25, 1848, at which time the congregation was also given a resident pastory in the person of the Rev. George LAUFHUBER. His successors were the Rev. Fathers DE BECKE, DEISENRIEDER, B. SMEDDING, Michael OBERMUELLER, Hieronymus BERCKMAN, John STUCHY, FUSSEDER, John MEHLMANN, M. RETZER, Herman Joseph MUCKERHEIDE, T. WILLER, Peter SCHWAIGER, August ZAININGER and John HUBER. After him the Rev. Joseph HAMM had charge of this congregation from 1870 to 1892, when the Rev. A.S. LEINER, present incumbent, took charge. The congregation is now composed of about one hundred and fifty-two families, or nine hundred and fifty-five communicants. There is one parochial school connected with this congregation, which has an average attendance of one hundred scholars, who are in charge of three Sisters of St. Francis, from St. Joseph's Convent, Milwaukee. The order of Catholic Knights of Wisconsin has a branch of about forty-five members in the congregation; also the St. Nicholas Benevolent Society, numbering about sixty members, and the Altar Society with about ninety members. This parish is in a very flourishing condition.

There seemes to be a little misunderstanding in the Theno side as in Grandfather Metzingers Obituary, Grandma's name was Mary Margaret But in the way we got it from some people in Luxenburg it was Maria Katherine – so I'll put it down the way I got it and if I find out otherwise I'll write

Greetings,

Hi, been long time no see. Mary, as for contacting Mr. Drobile, don't think so. He is listing all OUR information on the various web sites, without getting/having permission to do so. There's really no need to get a password from him for viewing our information, as it can be freely accessed from several different sites. Not that it makes any difference, but it's a good way of having erronous information published on the web I think. Yes, I have had his email addy, have had it for several years, but thanks for giving it again. Sorry about Mr. Drobile. Must go for now, as ever,
LDS......

Hi -
Just finished looking at the Metzinger site at myfamily.com. Looked at the address book and saw no Slusser name........think you should be there. It does have some things of interest, but needs more. I like it, but get tired of receiving notifications of birthdays, etc., on my E-Mail. I just delete them, because I am not really interested in sending birthday cards to distant cousins.

Think you should contact Bob Droble, site administrator, and get a password from him so that you can see what is on the site or add to if interested. Think you have his E-Mail, if not:

RDrobile@aol.com

He will send you a password so that you can access the site. Bob and Deloris will be gone until Feb. 8 (per a message on myfamily.com), so he will not answer until after that date.
Talk later,
Mary Ruth

Mary,

I supposed we were talking about Mr. Drobile, not Metzinger. Why are you putting the Metzinger info in here? I am aware also, that the Metzinger name was your father's family line, as well as your's, and of my wife's also. And, who really gives a big hoot, whether or not Mr. Drobile, posts any Slusser information at all......I sure as $%&)@ don't care. I have my Slusser information and that's all that matters. Why Mary Ruth, why are you being caustic and trying start more ill feelings?

As for the Metzinger information that Bob Dribile sent to you, you forwarded it down this way, remember, asking for me to be of assistance to you. What....are you PO cause I seen it, sounds like it to me. Oh well, it's your problem, you got to live with it, not me, thank goodness.

Am truely sorry that I bothered being polite by answering your letter. May you have a good.

Dear Sis,

Talked to Helen today and she said that Larrie had surgery, but was doing pretty good. Happy to hear that. It sounded like the surgery was on the area of the neck that you had mentioned a long time ago. The "thing" they found when he was in the hospital, but would not do surgery because of his heart.

Are you ready for Christmas?? I got my boxes in the mail quite early this year and missed the lines at the postoffice. Glad of that.

The weather here is very cold. It was 7 degrees this morning and is only 14 now at 2:30 PM.........much snow is on the way. Not ready for that.

Talk later,
Mary R.

Mary, I'm not one trying to tell you anything but offering a little advice only. Please give Jack Niell a shout on how to download pic's from the AOL. system. He just quit AOL yesterday and he does know how to do it. He's been selling on ebay auction for over a year now, and has been including digital pictures of what he's selling. Your picture IS there, you just have to know how to get to it is all. Sorry about that. Please work it out with Jack, OK.

Subject: Re: More Strong info

Hi Anne,
Found a bit more on the Strong family, as follows:

1850 census / Randolph Co. Alabama
Samuel Strong / 37 / born TN
Rebecca Strong / 37 / born TN
with children, including
JOHN STRONG / 12 / BORN ALABAMA

1860 census / Tallapoosa Co. Alabama
John A. Strong / 22 / BORN ALABAMA
Louisa Strong / 27 . born Georgia
GEORGE STRONG / 2 / born ALABAMA
William Strong / 1 / born Alabama

1870 census / Tallapoosa Co. Alabama
John Strong / 32 / born Alabama
Louiza Strong / 35 / born Georgia
GEORGE STRONG / 12 / born Alabama
William Strong / 10 / born Alabama
Oma Strong / 8 / born Alabama
Mary Strong / 7 / born Alabama
Francis Strong / 5 / born Alabama
Lucy Strong / 3 / born Alabama
John Strong / 7 months / born Alabama

NOTE; John A. Strong married Louisa Smith on 25 Sep 1856 in Tallapoosa Co. Alabama.

It appears possible that the Samuel Strong of the 1850 census is a son of Mastin Strong who was born in Virginia. Mastin is living in Randolph Co. in 1850 and is age 84 with a wife Rebecca, age 74.

As far as a budget for this research.......no charge for this fun research. I love history and so enjoy doing research. Many years ago, I did charge for genealogy research and after doing a great deal of genealogy work for a lady from Michigan, sent her my findings, pictures, etc. Told her the cost was $80 for eight hours of research. I never heard from her....not even a "thank you". It did upset me that she did not acknowledge my work....then decided maybe something had happened to her and her family did not feel it necessary to send a thanks. Right then, I decided that if I loved research why not do it for free and choose the research I wanted to perform.........so when Cynthia called to see if I would help you....jumped on the wagon and was ready to go.
I am only sending you brief info and when I finish the looking, will mail the findings to you.

Feel better each day............

Dear Mary,
Yes, a good trip home and promptly fell asleep. We start my 3d infusion cycle at 9am today. I will have my laptop and checkin with you during the day.
This is all very exciting. I wish I were sitting next to you in Bartlesville so I could learn how you are doing this. That is one of your questions: I do believe I will not return prior to November.
Mary, please let me know "the budget"and how much I owe for your time and expenses. This is priceless to me as I loved this little lady very much!
I will be in touch later today.

George W. Strong married Julia I. Winslett on 4 Oct 1877 in Tallapoosa Co. Alabama. In 1880 George, Julia and their first child, James were living in Hackneyville, Tallapoosa Co. Alabama

I have copied census records, marriage records and several other records and if you will send me your mailing address, would be happy to send those items to you.

Do you know when you will come back to Bartlesville ? If it is soon, I could meet with you and give these items to you at that time. Just let me know.

Might mention that I believe your Georgie Bell Strong Riley is really "GEORGIA ISABELLA STRONG RILEY" Her mother was Julia Isabella, so probably named after her mother.

Have lots more, but will save it until I hear from you.

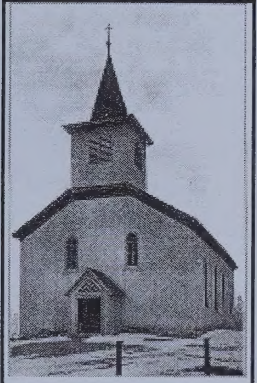
St. Nicholas' Church, Dacada, Wis.

(I'm including this church, although the church building is located in Sheboygan County, the church's cemetery is in Ozaukee County)



St. Nicholas' Church
Dacada, Wis.

The parish of St. Nicholas at Dacada, Sheboygan County, was first established November 25, 1848, at which time the congregation was also given a resident pastory in the person of the Rev. George LAUFHUBER. His successors were the Rev. Fathers DE BECKE, DEISENRIEDER, B. SMEDDING, Michael OBERMUELLER, Hieronymus BERCKMAN, John STUCHY, FUSSEDER, John MEHLMANN, M. RETZER, Herman Joseph MUCKERHEIDE, T. WILLER, Peter SCHWAIGER, August ZAININGER and John HUBER. After him the Rev. Joseph HAMM had charge of this congregation from 1870 to 1892, when the Rev. A.S. LEINER, present incumbent, took charge. The congregation is now composed of about one hundred and fifty-two families, or nine hundred and fifty-five communicants. There is one parochial school connected with this congregation, which has an average attendance of one hundred scholars, who are in charge of three Sisters of St. Francis, from St. Joseph's Convent, Milwaukee. The order of Catholic Knights of Wisconsin has a branch of about forty-five members in the congregation; also the St. Nicholas Benevolent Society, numbering about sixty members, and the Altar Society with about ninety members. This parish is in a very flourishing condition.

There seemes to be a little misunderstanding in the Theno side as in Grandfather Metzingers Obituary, Grandma's name was Mary Margaret But in the way we got it from some people in Luxenburg it was Maria Katherine - so Ill put it down the way I got it and if I find out otherwise Ill write.

COBUN FAMILY

years. His wife was Miss Harriet (Morgan) Ashby. She was a daughter of Hannah Morgan and a descendent of William Ashby, who came from Frederick county, Maryland, about 1779 and settled in the Glades east of Terra Alta.

The children of Reverend and Mrs. Roberts were Lakin Fiske, Gertrude and Loella, all teachers holding high and responsible positions in public school work. Miss Gertrude, a teacher of French and German in the High School of Wheeling, West Virginia, is a graduate of Allegheny College, Pennsylvania. She also took the degree of A. B. in 1909 from the West Virginia University at Morgantown. Loella Roberts is a graduate from the Fairmont Normal College in 1909, and is now teaching in the primary department of the Buckhannon Schools. Lakin Fiske Roberts was born in Brandonville on May 27, 1888. His father at one time was Presiding Elder of the Oakland District, and being on the circuit the family necessarily had to move from place to place in requirement of Mr. Roberts' work, finally a stop being made at Buckhannon, where the son completed a three years course in the Seminary. Afterwards he graduated from the Wheeling High School, then went back to Buckhannon to the school there, which had changed its name name to that of the Wesleyan College. After another two years stay here he went to Morgantown, where two years afterward in the spring of 1909 he took the degree of A. B. from the State University of West Virginia. In the fall of that same year he acceped a position as assistant principal of the Terra Alta Schools, and the following year was made principal where he has been since that time, accomplishing a very successful work in the Superintendency, having about eleven teachers and about three hundred pupils under his charge.

Mr. Roberts is an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is a member of the Masonic Lodge, also of the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is a man of modest mien, but is scholarly and self-reliant, and well worthy of the praise that comes to him from his patrons for the efficiency of his good work in the city schools.

THE COBUN FAMILY.

James Cobun was of English origin and probably of Virginia. He was born December 2, 1746, and came to the vicinity of Morgantown before he was married—probably not far from the year 1770. In 1790, he settled on the present site of Masontown, having patented a tract of a 1000 acres of glade land. His house stood in the eastern part of the present town, and considerably to the rear of E. E. Cobun's residence. The fact that he possessed a number of slaves would imply that the pioneer Cobun was a man of some means for the time in which he lived. He was a classleader of the Methodist church and was remembered by his granddaughter, Mrs. Hubble, as a person of excellent Christian character. He died at Masontown, September 17, 1822, aged almost 76 years.

His wife was Sabrah, a daughter of Arthur and Sabrah Trader. It was during her girlhood that her parents came West in the same party with James Cobun. She was of the brunette type, and was called the "pretty squaw" by the Indians because of her handsome features and her long and abundant black hair. Mrs. Cobun was born, September 10, 1756, and died October 1, 1843, at the advanced age of 87.

The parents of James Cobun were Jonathan and Catherine. There is no record of the family name ever being spelled otherwise than it is now, yet it used to be spelled and pronounced Coburn. Because of their tendency to emigrate, the Cobuns are not so numerous in our county as formerly. The descendants bearing the family name are to be found chiefly at Masontown and near Tunnelton.

The children of James and Sabrah Cobun were Catherine, Susannah, James, Arthur, Isaac, John, Jacob, and Sarah. All but the last three were born in Monongalia.

Jacob died of an accident in boyhood. Jonathan settled in Monongala. Catherine, born March 3, 1773; married a McGee, who lived near Independence. Susannah, born September 23, 1776, married a Holt, ancestor to Judge John H. Holt of Grafton, and Sarah, born June 3, 1794, married William McMillen.

James, Arthur and Isaac remained in Valley district. Their birth dates, respectively, were March 27, 1781, Nov. 30, 1783, and October 30, 1786, and their wives, likewise, were Nancy Fortney, Jane Patton, and Prudence Davis. Isaac remained on a portion of the family homestead, the farm of the late B. F. Cobun, while Susannah and her husband suceeded to the original home. James and Arthur lived a little farther southward, the former on the Simon D. Snider farm, and latter on the Simon M. Snider place. Arthur died suddenly while in a field. Isaac lived until June 24, 1867, being then in his 81st year. Prudence, his wife, died January 19, 1873, aged 81.

John Cobun, born November 3, 1790, settled in Fayette county,

Morton's History of W. V.

My Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

Was very please to hear from you in regard to my Genealogy query concerning the Ray family, and am very sorry to report that I do not have anything of any importance to pass along to you, however I will list some facts that I have and maybe, and just maybe you will be able to find some connection along the line.

The Larkin Cox was my Great-Great Grandfather and did marry a Nancy Ray, both whom I assume was from Henry County Virginia by the fact that I have a Zerox copy of his marriage bond dated Feb. 24, 1806 and also a zerox copy of his application for a pension and land warrant which states that he was married to Nancy Ray. I obtained application copy from the National Archives in Washington and the bond copy from the Circuit Court Clerks office of Henry County, Va.

Larkin was in the war of 1812 and was in the decisive battle of New Orleans under Andrew Jackson.

It is my understanding that Nancy Ray had some two or the brothers who came to Overton County, Tenn. which is only about three miles from Monterey and I know a lot of Rays, in fact I talked to Mr. W. T. Ray of Monterey about your Sarah Wade Ray, he knows nothing of Sarah Wade, however on the other hand he told me that his Grand father was named John H. Ray and married a Sarah Officer. Mr. Ray told me that he had never heard of any connection whatever to the Bunch family.

I have also heard that these two or three brothers of Nancy Ray who came to Overton County were actually the forefathers of all the Rays of Overton County and near by Monterey which is in Putnam County.

Through a friend of mine J. D. (Dolphus) Romines who is a descent of the Rays I obtained enclosed Thermo-fax copy (Not very ligible) of the Ray lineage

Dolphus tells me that his sister Mrs. Orgie Andrews of Route 4, Claremore, Oklahoma 74017 has done extensive research on the Rays of Overton County, Therefore I would suggest that you contact her and just maybe you might come up with the missing link.

Again for your information, the Eighth and ninth district of Overton County in located from three to ten miles from Monterey in Putnam County and is the place where all of my forefathers settled and lived when people were migrating west in the very early 1800's, these forefathers on my Mothers side included the Walkers, Copelands, Coxs, and Verbles, they were all neighbors and friends and were about all at that time that lived in the 8th. & 9th. district except the Officer and Boswell families.

I sincerely hope and trust that with what little information I have given will lead to something benificial to you.

Some of the above named families went on westward and settled in Arkansas, Oklahoma and Missouri.

I have only been working on my lineage for about six or seven years and really have only scratched the surface so to speak, however what I do have, I have it all pretty well documented.

Should you in future research come up with something that you think might be of interest to me, PLEASE let me know and I shall do the same.

Sincerely yours,

W. J. Pugh, Jr.

THE RAY FAMILY

Clay County, Tennessee established from territory taken from Jackson and Overton County. The Ray family, of Overton County were somewhat numerous.

Joseph H. Ray and Robert P. Ray entered lands bestowed upon them by the State of North Carolina, in Overton County, Tennessee, made by John Armstrong, entry taken 1812. These two Rays together with Stephan Ray (appointed Constable at Bentonsbury in 1783) were the sons of Samuel Ray, mentioned in the act of the North Carolina Legislature, as among those whose "heirs" were entitled to lands, because they lost their lives defending the country from the Indians. Leonard Ray, of Overton County, was another son, no doubt of Samuel Ray and brother of the other three.

Leonard Ray was born October 23rd, 1780, and must have been the very youngest son. He died September 10, 1852. In the old bible, Leonard mentions a sister Nancy Cox, who he says died May 29, 1814.

Considering the above, it is concluded that the family of Samuel Ray, killed by the Indians, consisted of the following children:

1. Stephan Ray, the Constable
2. Joseph H. Ray
3. Robert P. Ray
4. Leonard Ray (b. 1780)
5. Nancy Ray married Cox — My Great Great Grandmother and possibly others.

Leonard Ray, son of Samuel, had the following children:

1. John G. Ray (b. 1804)
2. Benjamin H. Ray (b. 1806) (d. 1852) Married Mary (Polly) [illegible]
3. Aiden Ray (b. 1809)
4. Nancy Lee Ray (b. 1811)
5. George A. Ray (b. 1812) married a Great Aunt of mine (Susan Walker)
6. Thomas Ray (b. 1814)
7. Washington Ray (b. 1823)

Married Sarah Catherine [illegible]

Benjamin H. Ray married Catherine Sehorn, and they were the parents of James H. Ray (b. August 17, 1837) who married Sarah Ann Officer, the daughter of William Alexander Officer and his wife Cynthia Hufford of Overton County. They were married in 1859. William Alexander Officer was the son of William Officer of Overton County, whose name appears in 1813.

This Lady's mother was a Graham - married a Sehon - Sehon died and married my Great-Great Grandfathe Benjamin Walker, Jr in about 1810

Dear Mr. Pugh:

I am responding to your query in the Virginia Tidewater Genealogy of March, 1980 concerning the family of Ray/Rea; Nancy married Larkin Cox.

Several people have worked on the Ray family of Virginia to Overton County, Tennessee and have had little luck - but we won't give up. SO am trying again -

I am enclosing a family group sheet for my husband's Nathaniel Bunch family, which includes Sarah Wade Ray. Please note their issue #9 and #10. Although this is just a guess, the name Larkin appears many times in the Bunch Genealogy which I have, and as yet, have found no surnames listed as Larkin, so feel it must have been a "family" given name(Larkin Cox ??).

I have checked my 1820 census of Overton County, TN and find Larkin Cox and Nathaniel Bunch as follows:

400010 - 20011

The Bunch Genealogy (compiled by the Bunch Family Reunion committee)has listed the names of John And Anna Ray as the probable parents of Sarah Wade Ray. If you have any other RAY names, I would be happy to search the material I have, including the "Reminiscent History of the Ozark Region" which includes many Overton County Tn., families who moved to Arkansas and Missouri.

Am enclosing an SASE and wish I had something definite to send about this Ray family, but hope this gives some small clue and would like to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

The pension Application of Andrew Wells is amended in each particular in which it was considered deficient by the War Department. As the Certificate of the Clk was attached with wafers and there was no seal of the Court he could not amend any other way than by making a new declaration and producing again, which is done. I have sent the old one back that you may see they are both alike

Respectfully yours

Mr Wells is not able to procure proof of his actual service he done the duties of an officer but had no commission If his proof is not sufficient to entitle him to pension as an officer he is willing that you place him on the roll as a private He is a man of fine moral character, and has acted as a Justice of the Peace in Knox County a number of years He is very needy; and he suffered more during the Revolution than anyone man for whome I have made an application. I therefore hope you will consider his case as a peculiarly hard one and as far as consistency will warrant; relieve his necessity

Noreen,

Michael and Rhoda Elizabeth (Honea) Wells are on the 1860 Stone Co., Washington Twsp., MO census. Michael Wells brother Jeremiah Wells is listed next to him. Do you know anything about Jeremiah Wells? He was married to Margaret Wilhelm(s). Jeremiah was killed on or about May 17, 1862 near Galena, MO and buried in the woods. Margaret later married my gr gr grandfather, George D. Luttrell on April 28, 1883 in Christian Co., MO. She married under the name Jackson, so must have been married to a Jackson at sometime. Margaret is still living when George D. Luttrell dies on April 17, 1907 in Ponce de Leon, Stone, MO. I don't know what happend to her after that.

Seven known children.

6) Adam Wilson Houk, Sr.; born 10 May 1800 at Houk's Fort, Flat Creek, Sevier County, TN; died 8

The Andrew Wells of Sevier Co., has an amazing story. His pension papers say that he was born 16 May 1755 near the mouth of Conococheague Creek in Frederick Co., MD. He moved with his parents, Robert and Esther Wells, to North Carolina and then to the border area of Georgia/South Carolina before finally residing in Tennessee. During the Revolutionary War he was captured and sent to England where he was held on a prison ship (English records verify this). After the War he was repatriated and found that his wife, mother of his eldest son William, had died. He was then married to Elizabeth Williams and after her death to Eve Houk. A descendant of this third marriage has participated in the DNA Project and has matched to W016 Aaron Wells, W020 Zachariah Wells and W028 Robert Wells. Isaac Kindred Wells of Jefferson Co., TN and Coles Co., IL, who has also matched the DNA profile, appears to be the son of Coleman Wells and Catherine (surname unknown) and Andrew is known to have had a son by that name from his second marriage, born.10 May 1794. The Conococheague area of Maryland is the known home of Robert Wells Sr., son of Thomas and Frances Wells, W006 and most probably Andrew's grandfather. By the time Robert Sr.'s will was proved 28 March 1771, it appears that all his sons except the youngest, Jeremiah, had left the area, probably the reason this family has so many brick walls.

Prose Interpretation—Ginger Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Smith of 609 Lincoln, and Miss Cott.

Poetry Interpretation—Miss Smith.

Duet Acting—Steve Collie, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Collie of 1215 W. Third; and Lois Gearhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gearhart of 608 W. Third.

Ratings of two were made by Rick Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnston of 118 Jefferson, and McKinney in duet acting, and by Belinda Trask, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Trask of 819 W. Fourth, in dramatic interpretation.

Party Line Refuses Plea 2 Boys Die

RUSSELL, Kan. (AP)—A Russell mother says someone on their four-party line refused to let her use the telephone to call a doctor when her two sons became ill Friday.

The two boys died of an overdose of aspirin.

Mrs. Larry Mravinec said she tried for two hours Thursday to use the telephone.

"I pleaded with them," she said.

'That's Your Problem'

"I told them my boys were very sick and needed help right away. They told me: 'That's your problem.' They refused to get off the phone."

Undersheriff Neal McGee said the Mravinec home is in the edge of Russell, 10 blocks from the hospital.

He said the doctor, when Mrs. Mravinec called, learned she had induced the boys to vomit. The doctor told her she had done all that could be done, and advised her to watch them carefully.

Friday Brett Mravinec, 2, became worse, was taken to the hospital and died. Larry, 4, died Saturday.

2.1 Isaac^{3} (Roger^{2}, Charles^{1}) Wolverton.

Isaac Wolverton, son of Roger Woolverton and Mary ______, was born after 1725, as he was under 21 years of age when his father wrote his will on 24 February 1747. To his son Isaac, a minor, Roger Woolverton gave the eastern part of the plantation in Amwell, whereon Thomas Starling dwelt, bounded by lands of the testator's brother Isaac Woolverton. He gave the other half of the plantation to his son Charles when of age. New Jersey Archives, Wills 2: 548. Isaac was probably born around 1730, as his first child was born in 1751. He described himself in a 1769 mortgage as a shoemaker.

Isaac Wolverton married three times. Around 1750 he married (1) ABIGAIL HERRIN, daughter of Isaac Herrin and Abigail _____. In his will dated 7 April 1756 Isaac Herrin, of Hopewell Township, Hunterdon County, referred to Isaac Woolverton's three children "that were born of the body of my daughter Abigail", to whom he gave £10 each, when of age. New Jersey Archives, Wills 3: 155. There is no reason to believe, as is sometimes stated, that Abigail Herrin was the wife of Isaac's uncle of the same name, and good reason to believe that she was not. The elder Isaac was born in 1706 and had married an Abigail by 1731. There is no evidence that they had any children. It stretches credulity beyond bounds to suppose that after they had been married and childless for 20 years Abigail gave birth to three children within five years.

Left with three small children upon the death of his wife Abigail in 1755-6, Isaac must have remarried promptly. The will of Abigail's father, dated 7 April 1756, suggests that Isaac already had a new wife. The first son by his second marriage, also an Isaac, himself had a child by 1775. The first known daughter by the second marriage was named Rosannah after Isaac's sister, and the second known daughter was named Elizabeth. This suggests that Isaac married (2) ELIZABETH _____. That she was a member of the Kingwood Baptist Church is suggested by Isaac's own activity in that church during the years of his first two marriages:

> On 22 September 1753 Malakiah Bonham and Isaac Woolverton were appointed messengers to the association with letter written by James Bray. Phyllis B. D'Autrechy, Some Records of Old Hunterdon County 1701-1838, 76.
> On 6 February 1756 Isaac Woolverton and Peter Romine to admonish Job Warford. Brothers Romine and Woolverton to admonish William Ruttinhouse. D'Autrechy, Some Records, 77.
> On 7 April 1759 Wm. Retinhouse and Isaac Woolverton were appointed to get glass and nails for the meeting house and the Book of Concordance from Malakiah Bonham. D'Autrechy, Some Records, 77.
> On 6 October 1764 Isaac Woolverton and Thomas Runyan were elected messengers to the association with letter written by Mr. Sutton. D'Autrechy, Some Records, 77.

Isaac's second wife died around 1764, probably as a result of giving birth to Elizabeth. Isaac then married, probably in 1765, (3) Hannah Rose, daughter of Ezekiel Rose and Mary Fiddler. Ezekiel Rose of Amwell Township in his will dated 26 May 1768 mentioned wife Mary and a number of children, including Hannah Woolverton. New Jersey Archives, Wills, 4: 364. The accounting for the estate mentions a payment to Isaac Wolverton. Hunterdon County Estate No. 754 J. An analysis of the Rose family suggests that Hannah was born around 1742-4.

It was probably in connection with the marriage that Hannah Woolverton was baptized on 18 May 1765 in the Kingwood Baptist Church. An Anne Higgins was baptized at the same time. D'Autrechy, Some Records, 79.

On 6 May 1769, Isaac Woolverton, Jr., of Amwell, cordwainer, mortgaged to John Howell, of Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, 150 acres, a part of the tract of 1666 [sic] acres that had been conveyed to his grandfather, Charles Woolverton, by William Biddle: "...Beginning at a Black oak Tree being also Corner to Isaac Woolverton Senr and line to Ch Woolverton, Thence North 28 Chains & 7 links to a Stone for Corner, and Corner to the said Ch Woolverton, thence East by Land of Dennis Woolverton and thence East by Land of Dennis Woolverton and Daniel Howell 53 Chains and 60 links to a Hickory Bush for a Corner and Corner to Daniel Howell, Thence south still by Land of Daniel Howell 28 Chains and Seven links to a Stake for a Corner, Thence west by Land of Isaac Woolverton Senr 53 Chains & 60 links to the place of Begining, And Contain 150 acres and about 70 perches of Land". He signed his name. Witnesses: Daniel Howell, Morris Woolverton, Reading Howell. No discharge was entered. Hunterdon County Mortgage Book 1: 89.

On 18 May 1776, John Kennedy, of Kingwood Township, yeoman, mortgaged to Isaac Wolverton, cordwainer, of the same, by metes-and-bounds description, a tract of land containing 81 1/4 acres, bounded by a road, Phillip Bird, Daniel Bray, Daniel Howell, Henry Hone, James Emmens, and Jonathan Hide. Witnesses: Daniel Dils, John Grundin. No discharge was entered. Hunterdon County Mortgage Book 1: 231.

Isaac died before 20 May 1798, when Hannah Woolverton and others, including Anna Higgins and Nathaniel Higgins, as members residing in and around Flemington, were dismissed from the Kingwood Baptist Church to form a newly constituted Independent Gospel Church. D'Autrechy, Some Records, 93.

Children (by Abigail Herrin):

2.1.1 i. Stephen, born on 9 August 1751. He married MERCY COXE.

ii. Rachel, born 1753-4, according to her gravestone. She married WILLIAM FURMAN, son of Samuel Furman, of Hopewell and Amwell Townships, Hunterdon County, later of Mansfield Township, Sussex County, and Mary Holcombe, a certificate for whose marriage was issued in 1750 by the Friends Meeting at Buckingham, in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. Samuel Furman's parents are identified in James P. Snell, History of Hunterdon and Somerset Counties, New Jersey, with Illustrations and Biographical Sketches of their Prominent Men and Pioneers (Philadelphia, 1881), 262. Their identity has been more authoritatively established by Stuart J. Furman, "Samuel Furman, Husband of Mary Holcombe" (Typescript; Woodbridge VA, 1990).

The marriage probably took place in 1774, as the censuses indicate that their first son, Isaac, was born in 1775.

On 4 February 1817, William Furman, of Shamokin Township, Northumberland County, and Rachel, his wife, conveyed to John Reed, Jr., of the same place, for $1,000, land called "Portsmouth" on the waters of Shamokin Creek, bounded by Farnsworth, Noah Barton, Jacob Rockefeller, and John Reed, a part of the land that William Furman purchased on 28 April 1797 from George Miller. Northumberland County Deed Book T:253.

On 15 June 1824, William Furman, of Shamokin Township, Northumber land County, conveyed to Joseph Chamberlain, of the same place, 48 acres of land in Shamokin Township bounded by Shamokin Creek, Henry Camp's estate, Noah Barton, John Reed, and Adonijah Farnsworth, being a part of the land that William Furman purchased on 28 April 1797 from George Miller.

William Furman, 1 September 1826. Rachel Furman, 9 September 1819, age 65. Gravestones at Deibler Station Baptist Church, Shamokin Township, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. Meiser, Northumberland County Cemeteries.

iii. Abigail, born on 14 August 1755. Old Bible at one time owned by Mrs. W. F. Madison, of Muncy, Pennsylvania, a typewritten transcript of which is in the library of the Northumberland County Historical Society.

Abigail married around 1780 JOHN FARNSWORTH, who was born on 10 December 1761. Bible record. Although there is no direct evidence of his parentage, research has shown that he had to be the son of John Farnsworth and ______ in turn son of Henry Farnsworth. They removed to Fairfield Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, some time after 1784, where he died on 9 April 1829.

Children (according to the Bible record just mentioned): (I) Robert, born 28 January 1782, (ii) Isaac, born 22 February 1784, (iii) Levina, born 14 January 1786, (iv) Priscilla, born 4 June 1788, (v) John, born 9 October 1790, (vi) Sarah, born 6 February 1794, (vii) Rachel, born 22 August 1796, and (viii) Susanna or Suanna, born 2 June 1799.

(Children by the second wife):

2.1.2 iv. Isaac, born about 1756. His name, and the fact that he named a son Stephen, place him in this family. He first married in New Jersey, but the name of his first wife is not known. He married (2) ELIZABETH WASSON.

2.1.3v.Jacob, born about 1759? A Jacob Wolverton, farmer, over 45 years old, appears at page 272 of the 1810 census of Shamokin Township, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, and has been found nowhere else. There is no reason to believe that he had a family.

In 1810 there were a total of seven Wolverton families in Northumberland County. Omitting Jacob, one of the other six was that of Lewis Wolverton, a grandson of Daniel Wolverton. The other five were the line of Roger Wolverton, as was Isaac Wolverton himself. Roger Wolverton had only three sons, and the sons of both Charles and Roger, Jr. are known. Hence if Jacob was in the line of Roger Wolverton, he was a son of Isaac. In an age when people were familiar with the Bible, it would have been natural for a son of Isaac to be named Jacob. Then alliteration would have suggested that the next son be named Jonathan.

The name Jacob did not appear elsewhere in the Wolverton family until 1800 when, in Virginia, William Joel Wolverton, in the line of Daniel Wolverton, named a son Jacob Isaac, but Isaac was not a name that appeared elsewhere in that line. The very fact that the names Jacob and Isaac were combined suggests that William Joel Wolverton was reaching over into the branch of Isaac Wolverton for names.

2.1.4 vi. Jonathan, born no later than 1764. He named a son Isaac, and the fact that he went out to Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, tends to put him into the line of Roger Wolverton. There is no other line of the family into which he might reasonably be placed. He married CASSIAH ____, probably Cassiah/Keziah Wilkinson.

vii. Rosannah, probably born around 1761. The name was that of one of Isaac's sisters. She named a son Vincent R[unyan] after her brother-in-law. She married HENRY MATTHEWS, who had been born in August, 1759. Gravestone.

A license for the marriage of Rosannah Woolverton to Henry Mathews of Hunterdon County was issued on 22 May 1782, Pearce Mathews being fellowbondsman. Pennsylvania Archives, Marriage Licenses, M 536. The names were so spelled in the text, but both men signed as "Mathis", and the name has been spelled "Mathes" in the published abstracts. Published material usually identifies the Rosannah who married Henry Matthews as the aunt of this Rosannah, a generation too old.

On 29 October 1770, the Sheriff of Hunterdon County conveyed to Rebecca Coxe land of Henry Mathis/Matthis in Hopewell Township as the result of an action in debt. Hunterdon County Deed Book 8: 323. The sale appears to have taken place almost immediately after his twenty-first birthday.

The following gravestones are to be found in the Burgh Cemetery, Fayette, Seneca County, New York, in which the family of Rosannah's sister Elizabeth (Wolverton) Runyan was also buried:

Henry Matthews, died. 8 December 1842, aged 83 years 8 months.
Rosannah Matthews, wife of Henry, died 5 March 1848
William Matthews, died 15 January 1830, 47-7-21
Martha A. Matthews, daughter of Henry and Rosannah, viii. Elizabeth, born 26 June 1764. Calculation from gravestone. Her gravestone identifies her parentage. She married by about 1790 VINCENT RUNYAN, who removed to Ontario County, New York.

It has been claimed that Vincent Runyan was the son of a Vincent Runyan and Eleanor Hunt. A letter dated 11 February 1938 from a Mrs. R. C. (Mabel Runyan) Beebe, 327 North Keystone Avenue, Sayre, Pennsylvania, in the files of the Hunterdon County Historical Society, claimed that Vinson Runyan married Eleanor Hunt, who married (2) Philip Edington, and that a son of Vinson and Eleanor, born about 1767, died in New York State, having married Elizabeth Wolverton. Children: Philip Edington, Aaron, Isaac W., David, Eleanor. He then married (2) Louisa Chapman Edington. Hon. Philip Edington Runyan, (1799-1845), son of Vincent Runyan and Elizabeth Wolverton, removed to White Pigeon, Michigan, and was a representative in the Michigan legislature in 1834. Virkus Compendium of American Genealogy, 6: 182. Mrs. Beebe's letter also says that Vincent Runyan, the father, was the son of an earlier Vinson or Vincent Runyan or Runion, 1700? - 1771, who married Mercy Smith. If she is correct, he would be the Vinson Runyan, of Hopewell Township, Hunterdon County, who will dated 27 October 1770 and probated 25 November 1771 mentioned wife Mercy, grandson Vinson, and executors his wife Mercy and Timothy Smith. New Jersey Archives, Wills 5: 439. Roger Wolverton, Elizabeth's grandfather, witnessed the will of Thomas Runyan of Hopewell Township, Hunterdon County, dated 30 October 1738, which mentioned sons Vincent and Thomas. New Jersey Archives, Wills, 3" 277.

On 22 April 1800, Vincent Runyan, of Hopewell Township, Hunterdon County, and Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed an eleven-acre woodlot in Hopewell Township to Asa Hart. Neither signed by "x". Hunterdon County Deed Book 2: 513. On 1 May 1800, Vincent Runyan, of Hopewell Township, Hunterdon County, and Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed a number of lots of land to John Drake. Hunterdon County Deed Book 4: 33.

They left New Jersey shortly after the sale, for in 1801 Philip Eddington and Vincent Runnion were listed consecutively as electors of Washington Township, Cayuga County, New York. Return of Electors - 1801 Town of Washington, Cayuga County, New York. Vincent Runyan and Philip Edington were among the early settlers of the Town of Lafayette, Seneca County, New York. Dear Mary,

Your letter of the 2nd just arrived. You write a powerhouse of a letter. Most of this one will concern the two Sussex County Wolvertons that you mention, which will not be of great interest to you but will at least put that matter to rest.

When I first became involved with the Wolvertons, the "traditional" analysis of the family showed the immigrant Charles with nine children (which was correct, as names and exact birth dates are known from a Bible). They included the seven sons listed below (but not any information on grandchildren, which I've inserted on my own):

1. Charles
2. Roger, born in 1700
    - 2.1 Isaac [line ignored]
    - 2.2 Charles
    - 2.3 Roger
3. Daniel
4. Isaac., born in 1706
    [Four or more children]
5. Dennis
6. Joel
7. Thomas, born in 1717.
    [Children ignored]

For purposes of our discussion the relevant children are 2. Roger, 4. Isaac, and 7. Thomas. I early established that none of the supposed children of 4. Isaac were actually his: three daughters were children of his nephew, 2.1 Isaac, and the remainder were either children of 7. Thomas or grandchildren of 2.1 Isaac. This left 4. Isaac with no children at all, and until last month I had not found any evidence whatsoever that he had children. The 1774 Thomas Wolverton whom you mention, by the way, was the oldest son of 7. Thomas. He and his only brother went out to Pennsylvania with their entire families during the Revolution, and so he can be dismissed as a progenitor of the Sussex County Wolvertons.

Until last month I assumed that the 1773 Isaac Wolverton in Sussex County whom you mentioned was 4. Isaac, whom I had decided had no children. Then I decided to look at the one document in the New Jersey Archives that ought to have had his signature.

Small digression on signatures: 2.1 Isaac, he who married Hannah Rose, was literate. He signed his full name on all documents. 4. Isaac, his uncle, was not. His mark was the letter "I", with strong serifs and a strong bar across the middle. When I looked at the one document signed by 1773 Isaac of Sussex County, it proved that his mark was an "I" without serifs and, in lieu of a crossbar a dot on each side at quite some distance from the vertical bar. He was, I am convinced, a son of 4. Isaac and one who knew or intuited enough about heraldry to difference his father's mark. I am also convinced that he and a 2.3.1 Amos Wolverton, are sufficient to account for all of the early Sussex County Wolvertons. As I make the family out (and putting in place Hannah Rose) the relevant parts look like this:

1. Charles
2. Roger, born in 1700
   - 2.1 Isaac, m. (1) Abigail Herrin
     (2) Elizabeth? ____
     (3) Hannah Rose
     [See children on enclosed sheets]
   - 2.2 Charles
   - 2.3 Roger
     - 2.3.1 Amos
3. Daniel
4. Isaac., born in 1706, married Abigail ______
   - 4.1 Isaac, of Sussex County
5. Dennis
6. Joel
7. Thomas, born in 1717, married Mary Pettit
   - 7.1 Thomas
   - 7.2 John
   - 7.3 Mary

Your indication in the last paragraph that you are still wondering who Hannah Rose married confuses me slightly, because in my letter of 14 November I had indicated that it seems fairly clear that she married 2.1 Isaac. His ceasing to be involved with the Kingwood Baptist Church in 1864 suggests that his involvement was primarily associated with his second wife, and his last known child was born in 1764. No other male Wolverton is known to have been - or even suspected of having been - looking for a wife around 1765, and the only Wolverton mentioned in Ezekiel Rose's will was Isaac Wolverton. I am very comfortable with Hannah's marrying Isaac and see the only real question as being whether they had any children. They may have; it just does not "feel" right. The only Wolvertons of the 18th century with unidentified parents are women who married at the turn of the century, probably born around 1780, and all in Sussex County. Isaac's known sons went up to New York or down to [West] Virginia or in one instance followed two of Isaac's daughters to Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, but there is no sign of a drift northward within New Jersey in his line. Moreover, the names of the unplaced Wolvertons in Sussex County have nothing to do with any names in either 2.1 Isaac's family or Hannah's family. I am inclined to think that they were all in the line of 4.1 Isaac or 2.3.1 Amos but willing to keep an open mind about it.

I think that you have disposed of any likelihood of Andrew Smith's being a link between the Wolvertons and the Roses, and my question concerning the possibility that one Ezekiel moved on and was replaced in Hunterdon County by another was really intended more for you, with your concern about straightening out the Roses, than for me.

If I should find any evidence that Isaac and Hannah had children, I'll certainly let you know, but I suspect that I shall have completed the project without finding any, because I have substantially abandoned research for editing.

Thank you for the Cooley material. I'd not realized that Andrew Smith's line was there. It had been years since I used his book trying to sort out Harts and, I think, Hunts - and cursed it for the total omission of dates.

With all best wishes for a happy Christmas,

Very truly yours,

D

Dear Mary,

Thank you for your note of 15 December and the further material on Ezekiel Rose of Washington County, Pennsylvania. I'm not going to do anything further with the Rose family because my interest in it is limited to the identification of Hannah's parents (well identified) and husband (identified, I believe) and children (none, I believe, but I shall certainly let you know if that changes).

May you have a fine 1997,

Very truly yours,

Just saw your query on Genweb concerning Isaac Wolverton of Hunterdon Co. NJ.
My ancestors Ezekiel and Mary Fidler Rose of Hunterdon Co. had a daughter, Hannah Rose who married a Wolverton (it is thought and Isaac). We are unable to find anything on Hannah and her Wolverton husband, so am unable to share a thing. I have had quite a bit of correspondence with a man in PA who is working on all Wolvertons. He has been most helpful and sharing. I last heard from him in Dec. 1996. You might try to contact him at the last address I have:

Hi,
Glad to hear from you, I am having trouble with my other email address so am sending this Hotmail. Yes, I have been in touch with David McDonald and he thinks that Hannah Rose is the mother of my Jonathan Woolverton, b ca 1761, son of Isaac Woolverton b ca 1735, who was the son of Isaac b 1706, son of Charles 1 b 1660.
Do you have a birth date for Hannah Rose, that would help me to see if she fits in the right time period. Hannah Rose was the second wife of Isaac Woolverton b ca 1735, the first wife being Abigail Herren.
Abigail Herren died abt 1755-56. So Issac would have married Hannah about 1756.
Thanks for your help. Mary L Wolverton

I do not know if Mr. Macdonald has the Wolverton book finished. Surely he would contact everyone who had corresponded to let them know it was ready.
Wish I knew when Hannah was born. I do know that Ezekiel was in Hunterdon Co. NJ by 1749, so feel she was probably born in Hunterdon.
Hope you will let me know what you find in the estate papers of Ezekiel pertaining to Isaac Wolverton.

Hello -
David Macdonald has changed his mind since 1996. He thought that Isaac married #1 Abigail Herren, #2 Elizabeth unknown and #3 Hannah Rose. He felt that Hannah and Isaac had no children. Since Isaac had a son Jonathan (by someone) and Hannah had a brother Jonathan, it made me wonder!!
I do not know the birthdate for Hannah Rose, only that she was listed in the will of her father, Ezekiel Rose, in 1768 Hunterdon Co. NJ.
Ezekiel Rose and Mary Fidler had the following children:
Hannah, m a Wolverton
Sarah, m a Phillips (I have been told John)
Ezekiel, Jr. b ca 1746 d 1810/11 m Mary Field
Jean/Jane m bef 1768 d bef 1771 m Jacob Quick, Jr.
Jerusha, b 2 Nov 1753 d 1 Mar 1822 m Jacob Quick, Jr. (widower of her sister)
Rachel, listed as Rose in will of her father in 1768 (she did not marry Joseph Powell)
Jonathan, b ca 1756 d aft 1829 m 1779 to Elizabeth Hixon
Charles, b betw Jan and May 1759 m 1781 to Rebecca Mulliner (MY LINE)
As far as I can tell, all of the children of Ezekiel and Mary Rose stayed in NJ, but Jonathan (went to KY) and my Charles (went to Monongalia Co. VA where he died in 1816.
Ezekiel, Jonathan and Charles all served in the Revolutionary War from Hunterdon Co.
Many people think, because of some early unproven research, that Ezekiel is descended from Tormut Rose of Block Island, RI. I rather think, again unproven at this time, that Ezekiel may descend from Jonathan and Jane Herron Williams of Long Island, NY........further research may prove his lineage.
David told me that Isaac Wolverton was mentioned in the settlement of the estate of Ezekiel Rose. I do not have that settlement, nor the reference source.
Let me know what you think.

Dear Mary,

A follow-up to my letter of 11 November 1996 because a couple of things happened as a result of my writing.

In going through your letters, I realized that last February you had sent a list of Hunterdon County ratables that I had not made use of. I found that the original ratable books, to the extent that they exist, are in the New Jersey Archives and that a number of them have not been published. On looking at the originals, I found that the 1784 list of ratables for Amwell Township, Hunterdon County, lists the size of the families. There is no reason to think that the family of Daniel Woolverton contained more children than I have already identified, so Hannah Rose did not marry into it.

I also looked at the estate file of Ezekiel Rose, father of Hannah, and found in the inventory reference to Isaac Wolverton, the only Wolverton mentioned. I think that I had mentioned Isaac in my first letter, but I have tended to dismiss him as a possible husband of Hannah for two reasons: (1) I thought that he was already married, and (2) he seemed too old. Isaac Wolverton was born around 1725 and married around 1749 (1) Abigail Herrin, by whom he had children in 1751, 1753, and 1755. She died, and he promptly married (2) unknown wife by whom he had children in 1756, 1759?, <1764, and 1764. (I know that the third child was born before 1764, and I placed the second in 1759? only because of the long gap there. Hannah was not born early enough to be the second wife.

I now believe that there were three marriages. If the second wife was still alive after 1764, there is no reason for so regular a string of children to have stopped. Isaac Wolverton lived in Amwell Township, almost on the border with Kingwood Township, and attended the Kingwood Baptist Church. He appears in 1753, 1756, 1759, and 1764, exactly the years in which he was married to his first two wives. I think that he married Hannah Rose, and she would have been the Hannah Woolverton who, on 18 May 1765, was baptized along with an Ann Higgins at the Kingwood Baptist Church. She would also be the Hannah Woolverton who, on 20 May 1798, was dismissed from the Kingwood Baptist Church with Nathaniel and Anna Higgins and others to form a newly constituted independent Gospel Church. Phyllis B. D'Autrechy, Some Records of Old Hunterdon County 1701-1838, 79, 93.

These things fit so neatly that I have no doubt that she married Isaac, despite the difference in age. After all, if his third wife was anywhere near his own age, the chances that she would be alive in 1798 would be quite small. There is no evidence that she bore any children, but I do not suppose that it was for lack of Isaac's trying.

And I have had another thought that would be of more interest to you than to me. You may recall that I thought when we first wrote that the Ezekiel Rose of Washington County, Pennsylvania, was Ezekiel, Jr. of Hunterdon County. A cousin of Isaac Wolverton served under him. You said that he was of a different line.

Dear Mary,

A follow-up to my letter of 11 November 1996 because a couple of things happened as a result of my writing.

In going through your letters, I realized that last February you had sent a list of Hunterdon County ratables that I had not made use of. I found that the original ratable books, to the extent that they exist, are in the New Jersey Archives and that a number of them have not been published. On looking at the originals, I found that the 1751 list of ratables for Amwell Township, Hunterdon County, lists the size of the families. There is no reason to think that the family of Daniel Wolverton contained more children than I have already identified, so Hannah Rose did not marry into it.

I also looked at the estate file of Ezekiel Rose, father of Hannah, and found in the inventory reference to Isaac Wolverton, the only Wolverton mentioned. I think that I had mentioned Isaac in my first letter, but I have tended to dismiss him as a possible husband of Hannah for two reasons: (1) I thought that he was already married, and (2) he seemed too old. Isaac Wolverton was born around 1725 and married around 1749 (1) Abigail Hance, by whom he had children in 1751, 1753, and 1755. She died, and he probably married (2) unknown wife by whom he had children in 1756, 1758, 1761, and 1764. It [illegible] that the third child was born before 1764, and I placed the second in 1759 only because of the [illegible]. Hannah was not born early enough to be the second wife.

I now believe that there were three marriages. If the second wife was still alive after 1764, there is no reason for so regular a string of children to have stopped. Isaac Wolverton lived in Amwell Township, almost on the border with Kingwood Township, and attended the Kingwood Baptist Church. He appears in 1752, 1753, 1756, 1759, and 1764, exactly the years in which he was married to his first two wives. I think that he married Hannah Rose, and that would have been the Hannah Wolverton who, on 18 May 1765, was baptized along with an Ann Higgins at the Kingwood Baptist Church. She would also be the Hannah Wolverton who, on 23 May 1789, was dismissed from the Kingwood Baptist Church with [illegible] and Ann Higgins and others to form a newly constituted independent Baptist Church. Phyllis B. D'Autrechy, Some Records of Old Hunterdon County 1701-1838, 78, 83.

Three things fit so neatly that I have no doubt that she married Isaac, despite the difference in age. After all, if his third wife was anywhere near her own age, the chances that she would be alive in 1798 would be quite small. There is no evidence that she bore any children, but I do not suppose that it was for lack of Isaac's trying.

And I have had another thought that would be of more interest to you than to me. You may recall that I thought when we first wrote that the [illegible] Rose of Washington County, Pennsylvania, was Ezekiel, Jr. of Hunterdon County. [illegible], at least, Wolverton moved [illegible] later. You said that he was of a different line.

But I note two things that now seem relevant: (1) in your letter of 18 July 1995 you said that Ezekiel Rose of Washington County, Pennsylvania, married "the former Mary Higkins", which seems to be quite a coincidence if Hannah Rose, back in Hunterdon County, was twice associated with an Anna Higgins; and (2) Ezekiel Rose of Washington County named a daughter Hannah, but Ezekiel Rose and Mary Field did not.

Those two facts suggest that Ezekiel Rose of Washington County was a brother of Hannah Rose and that the younger Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon County was someone else, perhaps a cousin who came to live near his aunt and uncle. You know much more about the family than I do, but it seems to me that I should bring those two facts to your attention.

Very truly yours,

David A. Macdonald

Dear Mary,

In looking over my correspondence with you concerning Hannah Woolverton, daughter of Ezekiel Rose and Mary Fidler, I see how loosely I was treating the entire matter. You must have wondered at my competence. At that time I was simply spread too thin to look very deeply into all of the problems that would require a great deal of research and correlation.

In editing my material on the first four generations of the Woolverton family I have isolated just a few problems within those generations that require solution, one of them being the identity of Hannah Rose's husband. And in going over the material that you have given me on her, together with some things that I have learned since last writing you, I have a few new thoughts that may interest you.

1. I withdraw my suggestion that Hannah Rose may have been the second wife of a John Woolverton, son of Thomas. It had seemed that Hannah must have been the wife of a known Woolverton because I thought that I had identified all male Woolvertons who were alive at the relevant time. But see point 3 below. If it were not for that I would not have considered him for reasons of geography. John Woolverton lived in the northern part of Sussex County, today separated from Hunterdon County by Warren County, which was created out of Sussex County in 1824).

2. In writing you I came up with what was obviously a false chronology, suggesting that Hannah Rose was the oldest daughter. Putting together what you wrote on 19 February 1996 concerning the ages of Ezekiel and Mary Rose's children, here is a first attempt at a chronology:

Ezekiel, Jr., b. 1746, m. 1772
Jean/Jane, b. c. 1750-2 m. <1768 Jacob Quick (1749-1816)
Jarusia/Jerusia, b. November 1753, m. 1772 Jacob Quick (1749-1816)
Jonathan, b. 1756
Charles, b. 1759

Unplaced:
  Sarah, b. ???, married <1768
  Hannah b. ???, married <1768
  Rachel, b. ???, m. >1768 if at all

This is based on the tentative assumption that Jean/Jane was a little younger than Jacob and older than Jarusia/Jerusia, as she was the first marry Jacob Quick.

Those tentative dates form a fairly regular sequence of births except for the gap between Ezekiel and Jean/Jane. If Ezekiel Rose's will named his daughters in order of birth, as is likely, Rachel must be placed between Jean/Jane and Jarusia/Jerusia, and Jean/Jane must be moved back a year or so:

Ezekiel, Jr., b. 1746, m. 1772
Jean/Jane, b. 1749-50? <1768 Jacob Quick (1749-1816)
Rachel, b. c. 1751-2?
Jarusia/Jerusia, b. November 1753, m. 1772 Jacob Quick (1749-1816)
Jonathan, b. 1756
Charles, b. 1759

This would place Hannah's birth either around 1748 (between Ezekiel and Jean/Jane) or around 1744 (before Ezekiel). In any event it would place Sarah's birth before that of Ezekiel.

3. Heretofore it looked as though I had identified all male Woolvertons who were born in New Jersey before 1800, but I have found that a number of Woolvertons married in Sussex County, New Jersey, in the late 1790's and early 1800's who almost certainly constituted a single family of an unknown Woolverton parent. That parent must have originated in Hunterdon County.

I know the Woolverton family well enough by now to say that there were only three persons in Hunterdon County who could have been the father of such an unknown Wolverton parent. Of the three, the most probable person is the Daniel Woolverton, Jr. of the next section.

4. Do you know why Ezekiel Rose should have named Andrew Smith, Jr. his executor? It may simply be a coincidence, but I have encountered an Andrew Smith as the brother-in-law of Daniel Woolverton, Jr.

Daniel Woolverton, born 1704, left no will and or other known document that would identify his children. He lived in that part of Amwell Township that later became Kingwood Township, but he lived only a few hundred feet north of the township line. He was undoubtedly the father of a younger Daniel Woolverton, born in 1739, who has been regarded as his only child. I have found, though, that he also had a daughter Mary, who on 27 July 1770 married George Smith. This would place her birth around 1750. The 11-year gap between the two births suggests that there may have been further children who have not been identified.

Mary Woolverton's husband George Smith had a brother Andrew Smith. The two were sons of a Timothy Smith, but it is still possible that Andrew was the Andrew Smith, Jr. of Ezekiel Rose's will. In those days one could be a "Junior" without being a son. I've not explored the Smith family enough to determine whether Timothy had a brother Andrew whose existence would have justified the "Junior".

5. Are you still interested in Tillman Wolverton (your letter of 19 February 1996)? I now have evidence that in 1809 an Elizabeth Woolverton owned property in Greene County, Pennsylvania, that was not assessed to her or any other Woolverton in 1810. We know from the 1810 census that Elizabeth, mother of Tillman Wolverton, had four children <1810 and was a widow in 1810. Her husband could not have died, then, much before 1810. I had already speculated that Elizabeth was the second wife of Thomas Wolverton, of Washington (later Greene) County, Pennsylvania. Her will mentions a Thomas Wolverton who was, I believe, a stepson. Finding the 1809 tax record enormously strengthens the likelihood of this. I've sent the whole bunch of material over to a professional in West Virginia who had already is likely, Rachel must be placed between Jean/Jane and Jerusha/Jerusia, and Jean/Jane must be moved back a year or so.

Ezekiel, Jr., b. 1746, m. 1772
Jean/Jane, b. 1749-50?, m. 1768 Jacob Quick (1748-1816)
Rachel, b. c. 1751-2?
Jerusha/Jerusia, b. November 1753, m. 1772 Jacob Quick (1748-1816)
Jonathan, b. 1758
Charles, b. 1759

This would place Hannah's birth either around 1748 (between Ezekiel and Jean/Jane) or around 1744 (before Ezekiel). In any event it would place Sarah's birth before that of Ezekiel.

She was not married to him or any other Woolverton in 1810. We know from the 1810 census that Elizabeth, mother of Tillman Wolverton, had four children < 1610 and was a widow in 1810. Her husband could not have died, then, much before 1810. I had already speculated that Elizabeth was the second wife of Thomas Wolverton, of Washington (later Greene) County, Pennsylvania. Her will mentions a Thomas Wolverton who was, I believe, a stepson. Having the 1809 tax record enormously strengthens the likelihood of this. I've sent the whole batch of material over to a professional in West Virginia, who had already worked on the problem to obtain his assessment of the evidence, as I do not want to be the victim of my own enthusiasm. Are you interested in what, if anything, I hear from him?

Given what I have said above about Andrew Smith, I'd be interested in anything you might know concerning the Smith-Rose connection that might help to determine whether the Woolverton-Rose connection was through the Daniel Woolverton line.

Very truly yours,

David A. Macdonald

Dear David

Your letters of 11 and 14 November, received. I will try to answer both at this time, but first...we have moved and the new address is:

2095 South Dewey, Bartlesville OK 74003-6506

I did not wonder at your competence concerning the Woolverton research and, in fact, am amazed at your knowledge of this family. I have found New Jersey and Pennsylvania difficult areas in which to do research. The lack of marriage records in PA and deeds and census records in NJ create problems in family research.

You mention that you thought you had identified all Woolvertons who were born in New Jersey before 1800, but had recently found some marriages in Sussex Co. NJ in the 1790's and early 1800's. It would seem possible that those Woolverton children might belong to the following:

Revolutionary Census of New Jersey (Stryker-Rodda), Gen. Pub. 1986
Page 146 - tax ratables
1773 - Isaac Wolverton - Sussex Co., Oxford Twp
1774 - Thomas Wolverton - Sussex Co., Newton Twp.

Isaac and Thomas would be born by 1752 or earlier to have been listed as a ratable. It would seem possible that those marriages of the 1790's and 1800's might be children of these two men who were ratables (and adults) in 1773 and 1774.

A chronology of the children of Ezekiel and Mary Fidler Rose is a difficult job. With the exception of Jarusia/Jerusia, no actual dates of birth are known. A list of the children born in the mid-1700's to any family must take into consideration the possibility of children who did not survive to adulthood. The chronology of births of the children in any family could be off by several years.

Ezekiel Rose probably named Andrew Smith, Jr. as one of the executors of his will because Andrew was a relative of his wife, Mary Fidler Rose. Mary's father, John Fidler (his will, NJ Archives, Vol. 32, p. 113, names son in law Ezekiel Rose as an executor) married Sarah Smith, dau of Andrew Smith. According to the book (manuscript, 133 pp) Fidler Lore by Hazel M. Kendall, Priv. Pub., Anderson, IN 1958, John Fidler a son of Barnard and Elizabeth Fidler (who died young). John moved from Woodbridge NJ to Hunterdon Co. with the Andrew Smith family. John married Sarah Smith, the widow of John Parke and daughter of Andrew Smith. The book states that Andrew Smith left a legacy to John Fidler in Andrew's will of 1703. I might mention that this book (LDS Library-microfilm) contains several errors. In any event, the Andrew Smith, Jr. was probably an uncle or cousin of Mary Fidler Rose, wife of Ezekiel.

I am enclosing some material on the Andrew Smith family taken from Dr. Eli Field Cooley's book, Genealogy of Early Settlers in Trenton and Ewing, Old Hunterdon County, NJ. Dr. Cooley's book, I am sorry to say, does not follow the lineages of any of the daughters of his Presbyterian Church. He also made several errors in the names of the wives of the male members of his congregation.

I was really only interested in the Tillman Wolverton and Elizabeth Woolverton because of their geographical location. My Charles Rose, son of old Ezekiel was by 1796 in Monongalia Co. VA. Since his sister, Hannah had married a Woolverton, I wondered if those people of the same name had some connection.

AND - now to Ezekiel Rose of Washington Co. PA and Ezekiel Rose (Jr), son of Ezekiel and Mary Fidler Rose of Hunterdon Co. NJ. I am enclosing a chronology of Ezekiel of Hunterdon Co. No, Ezekiel and Mary Field Rose did not name a daughter Hannah. One of their daughters was named Johannah and was this name also given to old Ezekiel and Mary Fidler Rose's daughter "Hannah Rose Woolverton"? In the 1950's, a man did extensive research on the Rose family of Rhode Island (Tormut Rose family). He concluded, without proof, that Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co. NJ was a member of the Block Island, Rhode Island Rose family. I believe he was in error. Was Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co. a son of Jonathan (2) Rose and Jane Nearon Williams, widow of William Williams of Brookhaven, Long Island? The given names of Ezekiel, Jonathan, Hannah Jarusia and Charles are used often in the LI families. The known names of the children of Ezekiel Rose (Jr) of Hunterdon Co. are: (per will)

Seth
Ezekiel (III)
Enos
John
Johannah
Sarah
Catherine

The known names of the children of Ezekiel Rose of Washington Co. PA who died in Muskingum Co. OH are: (per will)

Rachel (called Prior)
Ezekiel
Sarah (called Williams)
Nancy (called Smith)
William
Hannah, executrix (a dau and major heir of the estate)

I, yesterday, sent a letter to Christine Rose of the Rose Family Association to ask for information concerning the Ezekiel Rose of Washington Co. PA to Muskingum Co. OH where he died in 1818 (his will). Hopefully, Chris can answer some of the questions about the two Ezekiels.

Have you assigned all Woolverton's born in Hunterdon Co. NJ ca 1760's and 1770's to parents? And if so, you are certain that Hannah ROSE Woolverton and her unknown husband had no children. Also, have all of the Woolverton men of Hunterdon Co. in the 1760's been assigned proven wives? Somewhere prior to 1768, Hannah Rose dau of Ezekiel married a Woolverton - who...

Will let you know when I hear from Chris Rose concerning the two Ezekiels. Enclosing some items.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary,

Your letter of 19 February raises some interesting hints, though none of them is solid enough to serve as a basis for a conclusion.

You indicate that the dates of birth of all three of Ezekiel's sons and the date of birth of one of the daughters are known with some accuracy: Ezekiel, 1746; Jerusha, 1753; Jonathan, 1756; and Charles, 1759. Since Jean/Jane and Jerusha married a man born in 1749, it would not be unreasonable to suspect that Jean/Jane was a little younger than him and so born toward the end of the gap between Ezekiel and Jerusha. This tends to indicate that Hannah was the oldest daughter, either born before Ezekiel or born in 1748-9. The fact that she was named first of the daughters in her father's will supports the notion that she was the oldest.

I've given considerable thought to the identity of Hannah Rose's husband and am still up in the air concerning it, but perhaps not as much as before.

Isaac as husband: I no longer think that Isaac could have been Hannah's husband. Isaac's first wife died in 1755, apparently in childbirth, and he appears to have remarried almost immediately. The evidence for the children by the second marriage is indirect but strong. There were: Isaac, born about 1756; Jonathan, Rosannah and Elizabeth. Rosannah was the name of one of Isaac's sisters, but Elizabeth had not been a name in his branch of the family. There was no known daughter Hannah, and the name Hannah does not appear in the family of any of the known children by the second marriage. I tend to think that the second wife was named Elizabeth. (One might wonder why, then, Elizabeth did not precede Rosannah. There are two answers: (1) the sequence of birth of the two is not certain; and (2) Isaac's first wife was named Abigail, but he named her first daughter Rachel and only the second daughter Abigail.) But the clincher is that Hannah Rose would under any conceivable set of circumstances have been too young to have married Isaac in 1755-6.

Charles as husband: I have eliminated him as a possibility.

John as husband: It "feels" as though John was the husband, but I cannot adduce anything specific. I am virtually certain that the Tillman Wolverton concerning whom Miss English wrote (and who is the greatest outstanding Wolverton problem), though born in [West] Virginia, was from Washington County, Pennsylvania, which would mean that he was a grandson of either John Wolverton (and Hannah Rose?) or a grandson of John's brother Thomas. Tillman's mother's second husband, a Clendining, appears to have been from a Washington County, Pennsylvania, family, and her third husband, the unidentified Wolverton could well have been a son of John Wolverton (and Hannah Rose?), of Washington County, Pennsylvania. Moreover, John Wolverton (and Hannah Rose?) had an unidentified son 10 < 16 in 1790, the right age to be the father of Tillman.

The following may be only a coincidence but may be something more: You mention that an Ezekiel Rose of Washington County, Pennsylvania, died in Muskingum County, Ohio. Now, in the entire Wolverton family, there is only a single appearance of a Wolverton in Muskingum County. Tillman Wolverton married his second wife, Agnes McVicker, in Muskingum County in 1838. If there was some sort of cousinship between Tillman and the Muskingum County Rose family that brought Tillman up to Muskingum County, it would strengthen the possibility that that particular Ezekiel Rose was a cousin of the Hunterdon County Roses and not, like the other one in Washington County, from the line of the Maryland Roses.

I think that I'm going to have to leave it there and thank you for your help and patience.

Very truly yours,

David A. Macdonald

Dear Ms. Nunneley:

I'm beginning to pull my Wolverton material together but am still in some uncertainty about the husband of Hannah, daughter of Ezekiel Rose, although I have found nothing to contradict my theory that she was the second wife of John Wolverton. On the other hand, the fact that the Roses lived in Amwell Township, as did Isaac Wolverton, lends support to your supposition that she was the second wife of Isaac.

In going through my material, I realize that there was no reply to my last letter to you, that of 25 July 1996, in which I raised some questions:

> (1) Have you worked out the ages of any of Ezekiel Rose's children? From his will we can tell only that Jonathan was under 21. Narrowing down Hannah's age would help determine how early and whom she might have married.
> (2) The abstract of Ezekiel Rose's will indicates that he left 20 shillings to each of his three daughters Sarah Phillips, Hannah Woolverton, and Jean Quick but left various goods to his daughters Rachel Rose and Jarusia Rose. This could be taken as an indication that the first three daughters no longer lived close enough to their father to be in a position to take possession of various goods, or it could simply be an indication that they were married. Do you know whether Sarah Phillips and Jean Quick had left New Jersey? If so, it might be an indication that Hannah Woolverton had also left New Jersey, in which event she might have been the wife of a Charles Wolverton who went to Maryland at some time before 1777. See below.
> (3) Have you explored the Roses of New Jersey enough to be satisfied that there was not a second Ezekiel, cousin of Hannah, who might have gone out to Washington County?
> (4) Similarly, have you actually established that Tychicus Rose, of Maryland or Virginia, had a brother Ezekiel?

Perhaps you were put off by my suggestion that we stop the nuisance of sending stamped and addressed envelopes to one another, which to me makes sense for an isolated inquiry but not for a regular correspondence. If so, I am sorry. And in any event, we do not seem to have established a regular correspondence, so you will find a stamped and addressed envelope enclosed.

Very truly yours,

Dear Ms. Nunnely:

You certainly have provided convincing evidence that Ezekiel Rose of Washington County, Pennsylvania, was not the Ezekiel Rose who was brother of Hannah Rose Wolverton. That makes me a little less comfortable with my theory that John Wolverton married (2) Hannah Rose, because the coincidence of the name Ezekiel counted for something. But the theory was not based on that so much as on the fact that there were only two Wolvertons whom Hannah might have married before 1768: one was John Wolverton, as his second wife, which theory is supported by the sudden use of names for children that were Rose names and were not Wolverton names; and the other was an Isaac Wolverton concerning whom I shall say more below.

I'm not sure how far you have explored the Roses in all of their ramifications and so have four questions for you:

(1) Have you worked out the ages of any of Ezekiel Rose's children? From his will we can tell only that Jonathan was under 21. Narrowing down Hannah's age would help determine how early and whom she might have married.

(2) The abstract of Ezekiel Rose's will indicates that he left 20 shillings to each of his three daughters Sarah Phillips, Hannah Woolverton, and Jean Quick but left various goods to his daughters Rachel Rose and Jarusia Rose. This could be taken as an indication that the first three daughters no longer lived close enough to their father to be in a position to take possession of various goods, or it could simply be an indication that they were married. Do you know whether Sarah Phillips and Jean Quick had left New Jersey? If so, it might be an indication that Hannah Woolverton had also left New Jersey, in which event she might have been the wife of a Charles Wolverton who went to Maryland at some time before 1777. See below.

(3) Have you explored the Roses of New Jersey enough to be satisfied that there was not a second Ezekiel, cousin of Hannah, who might have gone out to Washington County?

(4) Similarly, have you actually established that Tychicus Rose, of Maryland or Virginia, had a brother Ezekiel?

It seems to me that if the answer to question (3) or the answer to question (4) is No, the possibility remains that Ezekiel Rose of Washington County was in fact from New Jersey.

Now to the other two Wolvertons that you mention:

(a) Joel Wolverton, of Hunterdon County, who purchased land in 1794 was Joel William, also known as William Joel, son of Daniel^3 (Daniel^2, Charles^1) Wolverton. His wife was Sarah Gano, also from New Jersey, and she survived him.

(b) The Elizabeth Wolverton who appeared in the 1810 census of Monongalia County, [West] Virginia, has been a real problem. In fact, I recently employed a professional genealogist to try to determine her Wolverton husband. She proves to have been Elizabeth ____, who married (1) a John Watts, who died in 1795; (2) an [Andrew?] Glendening/Clandening, who died by 1800; and (3) no later than early 1800 a Wolverton who has not yet been identified. Elizabeth, and presumably her husband, were of a generation later than Hannah Rose. Some of the children named in Elizabeth's will were Watts children, not Wolverton children. Only Tillman, Vincent, Eliza, and probably Priscilla, were Wolverton children. I shall not drag you into the many mysteries surrounding the identity of Elizabeth's Wolverton husband, because it is clear that she is irrelevant to your Hannah Rose problem. He had, so far as I can see, three possible parents.

(c) You speak of an Isaac and Elizabeth Wolverton who were grantors in Hampshire County, [West] Virginia, in 1800. That Isaac appears to have been born around 1768, and he was the son another Isaac Wolverton and an unidentified second wife, concerning whom I shall expand a little.

There were two early Isaac Wolvertons. One was Isaac[2] (Charles[1]), son of the immigrant, who was born in 1706 and married an Abigail ____, who is usually said to have been Abigail Herrin. The other was Isaac[3] (Roger[2], Charles[1]) grandson of the immigrant and nephew of the elder Isaac. The younger Isaac was born around 1730, and it was he, rather than his uncle, who married Abigail Herrin. She bore three children and died in 1755. He clearly married again, and the identity of his second wife has not been determined. However, none of the known children by his second wife bore any names that were peculiarly Rose names. One son by his second wife, another Isaac, went to Hampshire County, [West] Virginia, and he was the Isaac who executed the 1800 deed to which you refer. The reason I am so interested in the ages of Ezekiel Rose's children is that Hannah would have to have been of marriageable age by 1756-7 if she married Isaac Wolverton, because he appears to have had his first child by his second wife no later than 1758.

To complete the picture, I should mention something about the line of Daniel[2] Wolverton, son of the immigrant Charles. He is traditionally said to have had a single son, Daniel[3], born around 1739, who married a Hannah Chamberlain, probably around 1765, and he was still married to her in 1772, when her father referred to her in his will as the wife of Daniel Wolverton. So it is clear that he did not marry Hannah Rose. But there is almost no documentary evidence concerning Daniel's family. All that is known of it has come through a letter, early in the 20th century, from a descendant of Daniel, Jr., who lived in Oregon. He might very well not have known of anything but his direct line. Other information suggests that Daniel[3] Wolverton may have had a brother. Among the Wolvertons who have not been tied into the New Jersey family are:

(1) a Charles Wolverton who, along with Barton Garrett, John Garrett, and Mary Nickels, witnessed the will of Peter Pain on 7 November 1777, in Frederick County, Maryland, probated 23 June 1778. Western Maryland Genealogy 5 (1989), 85. He has not been identified, although I do not see how he could be other than a hitherto unidentified son of Daniel[2] Wolverton.

(2) a Levi Wolverton who was to be found in 1797 in Hampshire County, [West] Virginia and appears to have died in Missouri in 1820 (see the enclosed sheet on

Dear David,

Thank you for your letter of 5 February and sorry for the delay in answering your earlier letter concerning the Wolverton family.

I will try to answer your questions as posed:

—1. Have I worked out any of the ages of Ezekiel Rose's children? From his will we can tell only that Jonathan was under 21. NOTE: Charles is under 21, per the will.

a. Ezekiel Rose, Jr. born 1746 m Mary Field (per NSDAR papers of "Muffin" Martha Gayle Caparell, #746689. Approved 18 Apr 1992). Children's names known

b. Jonathan Rose born 1756 m Elizabeth Hixson (He deposed, 3 Jun 1823, in Fleming Co. KY that he was 67 years of age. File 4203 - file not further identified.) Children's names known.

c. Charles Rose born between Jan and May 1759. m Rebecca Mulliner. (He was on the tax ratable list in Hunterdon Co. NJ in May 1780, one man and one horse. He was not taxed in Jan 1780 - so became 21 years of age between Jan and May 1780) Children's names known. Great-great-great-great grandfather of Mary Nunneley.

d. Sarah Rose m (?John) Phillips before 26 May 1768 (will of father). If married at age 18, born 1750 or before. NOTE: John Phillips was guardian for her brother Jonathan Rose and bondsman for the guardian of her brother Charles Rose. The land of John Phillips adjoined that of Ezekiel Rose, Sr., in Hopewell Twp., Hunterdon Co. NJ. Children unknown.

e. HANNAH ROSE m (?John/Isaac/Charles) Wolverton before 26 May 1768 (will of father). If married at age 18, born 1750 or before. Children unknown.

f. Jean/Jane Rose m Jacob Quick (1749-1816) before 26 May 1768 (will of father). If married at age 18, born 1750 or before. She died ca 1771. One child, Jane Quick.

g. Rachel Rose, birthdate unknown. Unmarried 26 May 1768 (will of father).

h. Jarusia/Jerusia Rose born 2 Nov 1753, died 1 Mar 1822 at Amwell Twp, Hunterdon Co. NJ. Married Jacob Quick (1749-1816) on 28 Oct 1772. Jacob had married #1 her sister, Jean/Jane. Jarusia/Jerusia and Jacob are buried at Van Leiws Corner, Hunterdon Co. NJ. Children's names known.

—2. Ezekiel Rose's will of 26 May 1768 - did his bequest of 20 shillings instead of goods to his married daughters indicate that they no longer lived in Hunterdon Co. NJ. I DO NOT THINK THAT IS THE CASE. It is known that Jean/Jane Rose Quick, and Jarusia/Jerusia

Rose Quick lived and died in Hunterdon Co. NJ. If Sarah Rose indeed married Capt. John Phillips, her two brothers Jonathan and Charles served during the Rev. War Capt. Phillips' 3rd Regiment from Hunterdon Co. NJ. It should be noted that the will gives 20 shillings to each married daughter, "besides what they have had". Ezekiel Rose may have given goods or land to his daughters at the time of their marriage.

--3. Have I explored the Roses of NJ enough to be satisfied that there was not a second Ezekiel, cousin of Hannah Rose Wolverton who might have gone to Washington Co. PA? Since the siblings of Ezekiel Rose (died 1768) are unknown, any cousins of Hannah Rose Wolverton, both male and female, are unknown.

--4. Have I actually established that Tychicus Rose of Maryland or Virginia had a brother Ezekiel? NO. I do not do research on Robert/Tychicus/Ezekiel Rose of MD, VA and PA. This line was early VA and I see no connection to my Ezekiel Rose, Sr. of Hunterdon Co. who I feel may have come from Long Island to Hunterdon Co. by 1749 (first record). I feel sure that he was there much earlier, but have found no proof as yet.

One Ezekiel Rose of Washington Co. PA moved to Muskingham Co. OH where he died, leaving a will (no ref. shown) dated 23 Mar 1818. Proved 25 May 1818. It named children: Rachel Prior, Ezekiel, Sarah Williams, Nancy Smith and Hannah Rose. I do not have a reference, but Ezekiel and wife separated before his departure from PA to OH and she is not named in his will, though she did not die until about 1822. The town of New Milford, OH was started on the land purchased by Ezekiel and the name was later changed to Roseville, OH.

I have answered your questions, but am afraid the answers give no help in finding the _________ Wolverton who married Hannah Rose. I do think your excellent research has narrowed the possibilities. Do you have any idea what happened to those three men, John/Isaac/Charles, one of whom might have been Hannah's husband?

Enclosing a couple of items concerning the Wolvertons of Hunterton and an old letter from a researcher concerning this name. I believe Miss England was a professional genealogist and author. I do not know if she is still living. The Tillman Wolverton mentioned in her report may be the son of Elizabeth _________ Watts Clendining Wolverton of Monongalia Co. VA. Miss England did not answer my follow-up letter and sent no material as promised.

Will be anxious to hear any further thoughts or suggestions.

Sincerely,

Mary

7.2 John^3 (Thomas^2, Charles^1) Wolverton.

John Wolverton's brother Thomas was born around 1738, and his sister Mary was probably born around 1742 as she married in 1762. He had attained his majority by 1763, when he was appointed administrator of an estate, suggesting that he was born between his two siblings, around 1740. On 19 February 1759, probably shortly before his father's death, he married (1) ABIGAIL DARBY, daughter of Ephraim Darby and ___, of Sussex County, New Jersey. Records of the Scotch Plains Baptist Church, Essex [now Union] County, New Jersey.

It would be natural to suppose that the marriage actually took place in Sussex County and was simply recorded in Essex County, that may not be true. John Wolverton's father must have had some business dealings in Essex County, because his name appears in the Essex County Court Minutes, Liber C (1740-1752), p. 49. Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey 31 (1956), 48. Abigail Darby's father was quite likely the son of a William Darby, of the Borough of Elizabeth, Essex County, New Jersey, who mentioned a son Ephraim in his will but left him money rather than land. New Jersey Archives, Wills, 5: 126. It is possible that John Wolverton met and married her there.

On the other hand, Ephraim Darby may already have moved to Sussex County. On 10 July 1759, a survey of 53.5 acres of land in Sussex County for Ephraim Darby was returned, "in full of Deed to him from Jonathan Hampton March 22 1759 AB 4: 379..." New York Historical Society, Alexander papers, Box 67.

On 23 September 1763, John Woolverton was bonded as administrator of the estate of Bastian Moore, of Newton, Sussex County, his uncle Amos Pettit being fellowbondsman. Both were of Sussex County. Nathaniel Pettit, another uncle, and Amos Pettit inventoried the estate. New Jersey Archives, Wills 4: 293. On 10 December 1764, John Woolverton, of Sussex County, yeoman, became fellowbondsman of Anne Fagan, widow of James Fagan, of Newtown, Sussex County, labourer, George Space, witness. On the same day he and George Space inventoried the estate. New Jersey Archives, Wills 4: 139.

John Woolverton was appointed constable of Newton, Sussex County, New Jersey, February Term, 1766. Stark, Brad and Carol, The Minute Book of Sussex County, New Jersey (Bowie, Maryland, Heritage Books, Inc., 1993), 134.

All of John Wolverton's children are traditionally attributed to Abigail, but it seems clear that Abigail died and that John married by 1767 (2) HANNAH ROSE, daughter of Ezekiel Rose and Mary Fidler. Ezekiel Rose, of Amwell Township, Hunterdon County, in his will dated 26 May 1768, referred to his wife Mary; sons Ezekiel, Jonathan < 21 and Charles; daughters Hannah Woolverton, Jean Quick, Rachel Rose, and Jarusia Rose. He left 20 shillings to his daughter Hannah Woolverton. Executors included Andrew Smith, Sr., and John Fidler. New Jersey Archives, Wills, 4: 364. John Fidler, Sr. of Hopewell Township, Hunterdon County, had referred in his will dated 8 October 1759 to his son-in-law Ezekiel Rose. New Jersey Archives, Wills, 3: 113. It would be because of this marriage that two of the later daughters were named Rachel and Hannah. Ezekiel Rose, probably Hannah's brother, appeared as a Captain in the Washington County, Pennsylvania, militia in 1781. Pennsylvania Archives, Series VI, 2: 220.

John probably went out to Washington County, Pennsylvania, with his brother Thomas at some time between 1777 and 1779.

At some time between 1782 and 1785, John Woolverton was a member of Captain Howell's Company in the Washington County, Pennsylvania, militia. Pennsylvania Archives, Series VI 2: 244.

A John Woolverton and a Thomas Woolverton were listed among the Rangers on the Frontier, 1778-1783. Pennsylvania Archives, Series III, 23: 202, 216. They are probably of the next generation.

On 17 November 1787, 100 acres of land in Washington County, Pennsylvania, were surveyed to John Wolverton. Pennsylvania Archives, Series III, 26: 621.

The family of John Wolverton appeared in the 1790 census of Washington County, Pennsylvania, as follows:

Din^{o}. Wolverton
2 males ≥ 16 5 females
1 male < 16.

John Wolverton, married, appeared in the tax rolls of Amwell Township, Washington County, in 1793. Tax Lists of Washington County, Pennsylvania 1784-85 1793 (Typescript, Washington, Pennsylvania, 1955, in the Pennsylvania State Library).

Neither John Wolverton nor any of his sons appeared in the 1800 or 1810 censuses of Washington County or Greene County.

Children (the sequence and dates of birth of some being only guessed at):

(By Abigail Darby):

i. Mary, born 22 April 1761, who married ISAAC SHARP. (Several pages on her)

7.2.1 ii. John, born perhaps around 1763.

In 1792, Thomas Wolferston, private, and John Wolferston, private, were listed consecutively in an undated list of soldiers of Washington County, Pennsylvania, who received pay for their services in the Revolution. Pennsylvania Archives, Series V, 4: 733. And were listed together as privates of Washington County, Pennsylvania, who received depreciation pay. Pennsylvania Archives, Series V, 4: 426.

7.2.2 iii. Thomas, born perhaps around 1765.

Sgt. Thomas Wolverton served in the Washington County militia from 27 September 1781 to 20 October 1781. Pennsylvania Archives, Series VI, 2: 221.

In 1792, Thomas Wolferston, private, and John Wolverston, private, were listed consecutively in an undated list of soldiers of Washington County, Pennsylvania, who received pay for their services in the Revolution. Pennsylvania Archives, Series V, 4: 733. And were listed together as privates of Washington County, Pennsylvania, who received depreciation pay. Pennsylvania Archives, Series V, 4: 426. On 10 February 1794, 400 acres of land in Washington County, Pennsylvania, were surveyed to Thomas Wolverton. Pennsylvania Archives, Series III, 26: 622.

(Maternity uncertain):

iv. Abigail. Her name suggests that her mother was Abigail Darby, but her date of marriage suggests that she was born after Abigail's death..

Abigail Woolverton was married on 18 January 1798 to GEORGE HILLER by Rev. David Sutton. Cornerstone Genealogical Society, Cornerstone Clues II 1977), 63.

(By Hannah Rose):

v. Rachel, said to have been born in 1767, who married TIMOTHY ROSS.

married TIMOTHY ROSS, who had been born in Westfield, New Jersey, in 1765 and died at Shinnston, West Virginia, in 1851. He first married Mary Briant, daughter of John Briant of Greene County, Pennsylvania, and after her death married Rachel Wolverton, who died 20 October 1836. He is buried with his wife at Bates Fork Baptist Church cemetery in Greene County, Pennsylvania. Children, surname Ross: (i) Capt. John, b. 19 March 1792 [but see below], m. PHOEBE HEATON, daughter of William and Ann Heaton, and died 4 August 1878; (ii) Samuel; (iii) Nathaniel, born 19 February 1794, married SALLY HAIR, and went to Knox County, Ohio, in 1817. Howard L. Leckey, The Tenmile Country and Its Pioneer Families (Knightstown, Inc.), 471.

A letter from Mrs. Merlyn Houck to Charlotte D.Walter dated 25 August 1962 states that Rachel married in 1785 and died on 20 October 1836. John Ross, born 19 March 1787, married 1822 Phoebe Heaton and died 4 August 1878, she born 1793 and dying in 1866. She cites the Pennsylvania SAR lineage book, 1955.

vi. Margaret, b. 30 July 1772, who married GEORGE TAYLOR.

Margaret Wolverton was born on 30 July 1772. She married GEORGE TAYLOR on 21 April 1791 at Frederick, Virginia. IGI 7702112/3; 1058902. The IGI lists as children of GEORGE TAYLOR and Margaret Wolverton: (i) Abigail, b. 30 May 1792, Washington County, Pennsylvania; (ii) David W., b. December, 1794, Washington County, Pennsylvania; (iii) Ruth, b. 14 April 1796, Washington County, Pennsylvania; (iv) John Wolverton, b. 31 August 1798, Washington County, Pennsylvania; (v) Thomas Wolverton, b. 12 March 1801, Washington County, Pennsylvania; (vi) George, b. 5 April 1803, Greene County, Pennsylvania; (vii) Phoebe, b. 10 January 1808, Greene County, Pennsylvania; (viii) [Female] b. 1811, Greene County, Pennsylvania; and (ix) Mary, b. 9 November 1813, Greene County, Pennsylvania. But see below concerning William.

A letter dated 25 August 1962 from Mrs. Marlyn Houck to Charlotte D. Walter, of the Northumberland County Historical Society says that Abigail m. Henry Fonner, had at least 8 children, died before 1850; David married Mary ___ and died about 1820; Ruth was born 15 April 1796, married Amos Martin, and died 12 October 1881; John was born 1 September 1898, married Margaret _____, and died 6 July 1872; Thomas was born 12 March 1801, married 2 September 1824 Angeline McCaslin, and died 21 January 1872; George died in infancy; Phoebe was born about 1810? and married Isaac Robinson; Mary was born about 1814, married Thomas Zimmerman, and died 1 December 1891; William [not named above] was born 27 October 1805, married Jane Crayne, and died on 3 March 1860.

A chart from J.E.W. says that Margaret died on 29 November 1838.

vii. Hannah, born June, 1777, who married STEPHEN CORWIN.

The pedigree chart of a Mrs. R. L. Barkley, 3734 S. E. Tecumseh Road, Tecumseh, KS 66542, dated November, 1979, states that Hannah Wolverton was born on 15 June 1777 and died on 2 September 1844 at Morrow, Ohio. It indicates that a petition states that Stephen Corwin died intestate leaving a widow Hannah and eleven children, including Eunice, married to William Cook. Washington County, Pennsylvania, Orphan's Court, October Term 1831.

Hannah Wolverton was born in June, 1777, m. STEPHEN W. CORWIN, son of William Corwin and Mary Cooper. According to the expanded Corwin Genealogy, p. 334, she died on 2 September 1844 in Richland County, Ohio, but is buried beside Margaret (Sharp) Corwin in Bryn Zion Churchyard near Mt. Gilead, Ohio. Children (per expanded Corwin Genealogy): (i) Eunice C., born 1796, who married WILLIAM COOK, of Richland County, Ohio; (ii) Mary B., born 1 November 1799, who married JOSEPH BAKER, of Washington County, Pennsylvania; (iii) Elizabeth B., born 1799, who married WILLIAM BAKER; (iv) Asenath S., who married JOHN SMILEY, of Richland County, Ohio, and died on 22 August 1828; (v) William, born 10 September 1801, who married MARY LEWELLEN; (vi) John, who died before 1826, not being mentioned in his father's will; (vii) Sophia S., born May 1811, who married DENNIS SMITH, of Washington County, Pennsylvania, and died on 1 January 1884; (viii) Stephen, born 1813, who married MARGARET BARCHUS (Morrow County, Ohio); (ix) Rachel M., born 1815, who married JAMES MESSENGER; (x) Ruth, born 1817, who married BENJAMIN ROSS (Coshockton County, Ohio); (xi) Hannah, born 1819, who married JAMES B. COOK (Wyandot County, Ohio); and (xii) James, born 1824, who married MARGARETTA BARCHUS (OHIO AND ILLINOIS).

Dear Ms. Nunnely:

Most of the names that you mention from the Kingwood Baptist Church Record Book are irrelevant to your problem, and I will not touch on them. In particular, the Anny Woolverton, deceased 1808, and the Widow Wolverton, died 15 June 1808, were the same person, born Ann Runyan, wife of a Joel Wolverton. She was not your Hannah Rose Woolverton.

The Hannah Woolverton who was baptized in 1765 and the Hannah Woolverton, living around Flemington, who was dismissed with others to form a new church in 1798 were undoubtedly a single person. You will see from the church record that in 1765 she was baptized along with Ann Higgins, and you will see from the same record that Ann Higgins was one of the people who was dismissed along with Hannah Woolverton in 1798. She was no doubt Hannah Chamberlain, wife of Daniel Woolverton (son of Daniel, son of the immigrant Charles). Her husband died in 1786, which would account for no husband being with her when she was dismissed in 1798.

Hannah Rose Wolverton, as I have said, appears to me to have been the second wife of John Wolverton. She would have been in Washington County, Pennsylvania, long before 1798. I am enclosing a write-up on John Wolverton that contains all that I know of him and his marriages. His marriage to Hannah Rose is unproven, but I know of only one other Wolverton that she could have married, and that Wolverton named no children Hannah.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Macdonald:

I have received your letter of 10 July and the material concerning John Wolverton and his family. It is very interesting and has good possibilities for further research. I would mention that the Ezekiel Rose, a Captain in the Washington County, Pennsylvania, militia in 1781 (your reference, Pennsylvania Archives, Series VI, 2:220) was not a brother of Hannah Rose Wolverton. The following:

> Ezekiel 2 ROSE (Ezekiel 1 ROSE)
> died between 18 March 1810 (date of will) NJ State Library #2493J and 29 June 1811 (will proved). He married 18 Nov 1772 (NJ vital records) to Mary FIELD, dau of Seth FIELD (his will, NJ Archives, v.38, p.126) who lists an heir, Mary ROSE with executors, Ezekiel ROSE and John SMITH.
> The will of Ezekiel ROSE (reference above) lists heirs; wife Mary; children, Seth; Ezekiel; Enos; John; Johannah; Sarah; Catherine.
> Deeds in Hunterdon Co. NJ as late as 1835 continue to list these children and their spouses, along with their mother, shown as "widow of Ezekiel, decd.
> Ezekiel ROSE of Washington Co. PA was probably a brother of Tychicus ROSE and a son of Robert ROSE of MD and VA. Ezekiel of Washington Co. had a wife Margaret (the controversial Horn Papers) or a wife, "the former Mary Higkins" per a deed (Washington Co. Book 1-R, p. 309).

While trying to locate a husband for Hannah ROSE Wolverton, I also, wondered about the Joel Wolverton of Hunterdon Co. NJ who purchased land in Hampshire Co. VA from Richard Ramesvil on 15 Oct 1794 (Early Hampshire County, Virginia (by) Sage and Jones). This Joel died (inventory of estate) before 17 April 1815, same reference with no book or page listed. An Isaac and Elizabeth Wolverton are also listed as grantors in 1800. An Elizabeth Wolverton appears on the 1810 census of Monongalia Co. VA (my ancestor, Charles ROSE, brother of Hannah also resides in that county in 1810). Elizabeth Wolverton's will is at Book 1, p. 028, dated 25 Aug 1826. Her devisees are: sons, Tillman; Vincent; Rich.; daus, Eliza; Anna; Susanna; Pricilla. (Monongalia Co)
I suppose the only real connection to these families of Rose, Wolverton, Horner, Baker, Scudder, McShane and others from Hunterdon Co. NJ to PA and VA will be that neighbors often traveled together to new lands.

Thank you for the information concerning John Wolverton. I will try to pursue your idea that his second wife was Hannah ROSE.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Ms. Nunnely:

A reader of the Rose Family Bulletin, knowing that I have been working on Wolverton matters, forwarded to me the page from the June, 1994, issue containing your inquiry about the parentage of Ezekiel Rose, whose daughter Hannah may have married Isaac Woolverton. Concerning that inquiry, I am enclosing a copy of a letter dated 8 December 1994 from the Rose Family Association.

Because your interest is in the Roses, not the Woolvertons, I shall not go into any detail concerning Hannah Rose, but until reading your query I had been convinced that she did not marry an Isaac Woolverton but rather was a second wife of John^3 (Thomas^2, Charles^1) Woolverton, who had married Abigail Darby in 1759. There is a tendency to suppose that all of the children of a man known to have married one wife, and not proven to have married a second wife, are by that first wife. In this instance, considerations of geography argue that Hannah Rose was unlikely to have married Isaac Woolverton but might well have married John Woolverton; and the names of John's last children do not appear among his close Woolverton relatives or in the Darby family but do appear in the Rose family.

You state in your query that Hannah died on 15 June 1808. Can you tell me the source of that information? If it came from New Jersey records, it would be clear that Hannah did not marry John, because he removed in the 1770's to Washington County, Pennsylvania. Your answer to that question may settle the problem one way or another.

Very truly yours,

Dear David,

Many thanks for your letter; always interested in some of the Rose problems! I fear though that I cannot help directly with Woolverton, for all I have is the will in which Hannah is named. However, I can tell you that previous researchers have assigned Ezekiel Rose as the same Ezekiel Rose who was son of John and Mary Rose of Block Island, Rhode Island. I think there is considerable doubt on this, and I believe that Ezekiel is instead from the Long Island Roses. I have a number of reasons for believing this, but most particularly, when Mary the mother of Ezekiel left her will on Block Island she mentioned her son Ezekiel of Block Island. We know the Hunterdon County Ezekiel was already in Hunterdon County and had been there at least for a while at the time. Further, Mary left the inheritance of her son Ezekiel in care of a daughter, while Ezekiel of Hunterdon was already married and had family at the time.

I cannot yet positively identify the Ezekiel line on Long Island though I do have record of some Ezekiel Rose there. But perhaps that location would be helpful to you.

I wish I had something specific for you but now that I know someone is searching, I'll watch for further. If you should learn anything further or get some ideas, I'd be glad to hear!

Sincerely,

Christine Rose

Dear Mr. Macdonald:

Thank you very much for your letter of 31 May 1995 concerning my query in the Rose Family Bulletin of June 1994.

I have worked for several years on the Ezekiel Rose family of Hunterdon Co. NJ and am interested in finding information on all of his children and grandchildren, including Hannah ROSE Woolverton.

My query only suggested a possibility that Hannah Rose married (?Isaac) Woolverton. Her possible death date of 15 June 1808 should also, have been preceded by a question mark. That was not printed in the query.

Though I have tried for years, as have others, to discover information on Hannah the search has not found anything. We only know that she married a Woolverton before May 1768 per her father's will.

The Kingwood Baptist Church Record Book 1742-1824, lists several Woolvertons:

Abigail Woolverton, bapt 12 Jun 1731 - died by 1749
Isaac Woolverton, bapt 12 Jun 1731
Isaac Woolverton, messenger to Association, 6 Oct 1764
Hannah Woolverton, bapt 18 May 1765
Hannah Woolverton, dism (with others) to form a new Gospel Church - 20 May 1798
Anny Woolverton, deceased 1808
Widow Wolverton, died 15 Jun 1808

No John Woolverton is listed in the early records of the church and Isaac is not mentioned after 1764. Other Woolvertons attending were: Gabriel, Jonathan, Hitibel, Sarah, Isaac (1802) m Lucretia Chamberlin and John (1804) m Elizabeth Roads. If you do not have these church records, I would be happy to copy them for you.

Is the above Hannah Woolverton the Hannah ROSE Woolverton, dau of Ezekiel Rose? I do not know. Or was she the wife of John Woolverton, to Washington Co. PA in the 1770's? I would not be surprised to find her in Washington Co. PA. My ancestor, Charles Rose (son of Ezekiel and brother of Hannah) moved from NJ to Monongalia Co. VA by 1796 and died in that county in 1816. A son of Charles, Thomas Rose married about 1816 in Greene Co. PA to Ruth Scudder, dau of Thomas Scudder and Abigail Clark. The Scudder and Clark families were from Hunterdon Co. NJ. I feel sure that there were other Hunterdon families in Washington, Greene and Fayette cos. PA and Monongalia Co. VA. Many of the names are found in NJ and later VA and PA. Why not Hannah?

I would appreciate any information you might give that can get me started on this Woolverton family again.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

I am delighted to receive your letter in answer to my query 8n the last issue of the Dar Magazine. I had just about given up hope on the Wolverton research. I should tell you at ance that I do not have Wolverton line myself . I undertook this search for my nephew, whose mother was a Wolverton.

Since I put the query in the DAR Mag., I have about decided that the Wolvertons are of New Jersey, rather than Pennsylvania, and it may be that that is the reason my attempts to establish a contact in Monongalia Co. have petered out. It was not my intention to take sides in this issue. Perhaps I worded my query in a misleading manner.

The DAR Patriot Index lists three Wolvertons, all from New Jersey. I assume that you have a copy of this, or have access to one.

Everton's Handy Book for Genealogists seems to indicate that New Jersey was an offshoot of Pennsylvania, so this may be the hang-up between the two groups. I only want to document the line.

From Ross B. Johnston's West Virginia Estate Settle ments. p. 82. Chas. Rose left will in Monongalia, dated 9-1816, naming devises: wife, Rebecca; sonsChas., John, Thom.,and Hopkins; daus. Mary, Rose, Rachel, Rebecca, Aley Connor and Hannah Freelove. An inventory of his estate was made 9-21-1816. Does this agree with your information?

It is my intention to go through all my correspondence regarding this research, and make a list of all the nice people who have helped me. Would you like to have a copy of this when I do? At any rate, lets keep in con tact with each other.
Apologies for typing errors. I broke my right wrist a year ago, and just now getting to where I can use typewriter, and am badly out of practice.
Anything you can send me on the Wolverton line, I will be happy to get.

Sincerely

Flora E.

Final Report on Wolverton Research

When my sis-ter-in law in Groesbeck, Texas, asked me to do some research on her Wolverton line, and stated that her ancestor, Tilman Wolverton came to Texas from Illinois, I felt I could not do it, since all my lineage research in the past had been on families originating in Virginia, and following a tide of immigration that began shortly after the Revolution, and moving thru North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, to Alabama, then southwestward to Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, and points westward.

However, When my said sister-in-law handed me a jumble of papers which had been preserved by her father, Wm Clarence Wolverton, I found among them a sheet of census data, showing Tilman and his wife, Agnes, and that they told the census enumerator three times, in 1850, 1860, and 1870, that they were both born in Virginia. So I undertook the job, and this is a summary of the results. Please bear in mind that my resources for this kind of lineage research are limited.

From Everton's Handy Book for Genealogists, I learned that 13 counties of Virginia withdrew from Virginia about the time of the civil war, and alinged themselves with West Virginia. Then I found a book by Ross B. Johnston "West Virginia Estate Settlements" and there, on p. 88, I found a summary of the will of one Elizabeth Wolverton, dated 8-1826 , and naming as her heirs: Tilman, Vincent, and Richard, her sons; and daughters named Eliza, Anna, Susanna,, Priscilla, I feel certain this is the Tilman Wolverton who eventually showed up in Limestone, County Texas, as that Tilman had a son named Vincent.

Other information supplied by the family in Texas was that Tilman was twice married, his wives being sisters, The name of his first wife was unknown. By her, Tilman had one son, Norvell, who followed Tilman in his travels through the NorthWest Territory, a nd is listed with Tilman in Texas in the 1850 census, but died before 1860. The marriage of Tilman to his second wife, Agnes McVickers, took place somewhere in the Northwest Territory, and I have found the record of this. Have also found that Tilman paid taxes in Illinois at one time, on land he owned there. The Census record of Limestone Co., Texas also showed that Tilman had a son called Mac, and I assume that his full name was McVicars. This family seems to have had a liking for using surnames as given names.

I was not asked to pursue the McVicars line, but did so, to some extent, hoping to find some connection to the Wolvertons. One Duncan McVicars was a Revolutionary soldier, and I secured information about him, which listed all his children, but at the end, listed two daughters, names unknown. I guestimate these are the two sisters Tilman married. The name of Duncan McVicars also shows up in Monongalia W. Va. but the info about him is sketchy too sketchy to be of any value.

I note that I neglected to say above, that the will of Elizabeth Wolverton, naming Tilman as her son, is in Monongalia Co. W. Va.

Over a period of the last two years, I have put queries in many publications, and have corresponded with many Wolverton descendants, and I hereby acknowledge with gratitude, their assistance. All are convinced that one Charles Wolverton was the emigrant ancestor of all the Wolvertonsin this country, and that he came over in the ship Welcome with Wm Penn in ~~1862~~ 1682, and participated in the founding of Pennsylvania. Confirmation of this eludes me.

You understand that my resources for this kind of research xx are limited. It is possible that some info will yet come from the x queries I have published in various publications. I am in touch with some people in Morgantown, W. Va., but have not had any helpful response from them yet.

I have seen and examined a book "The Welcome Claimants, Proved, Disproved, and Doubtful" a publication of the Welcome Society of Pennsylvania. The name Wolverton is not indexed therein. Yet there is such a strong conviction among the wolvertons with whom I have xxxxxxxxxxxxxx corresponded, that Chas.W . did come over in 1862 on the Welcome I feel that there must be some truth in their tradition, and I do not give up hope, though I have, as I said, exhausted my resources.

In the course of my research, I obtained the name of a genealogist in Morgantown, W. Va. said to be past 92, but still an expert in that field. This encourages me to hope that if I can just hold on till I am 92, --who knows?

The name wolverton is of very ancient origin in England. There arex a number of parishes by that name.
